Prison Ship Torpedoed Nazis, Italians on Way to Canada Struck by U-Boat; Many Lose Lives

LONDON (CP)—Torpedoed off the coast of Ireland by a German submarine, the British liner Arandora Star, bound for Canada, with 2,000 prisoners, most of them interned Italians and Germans, sank with apparently heavy loss of life. (Torpedoing of the ship had been previously announced by the Nazi high command.)

Many of the internees were killed in a wild rush for lifeboats, said survivors who reached a Scottish port today.

The water was filled with bodies and debris, the witnesses related. Hundreds were asleep when the torpedo struck the 15,501-ton liner and were unable to cope with the stampede for lifeboats.

British soldiers were aboard as guards.

About 1,000 scantily-clad survivors were landed by a British ship at a Scottish port.

Two soldiers who survived said the ship was struck without warning.

"We cursed the U-boat, but not so much as did the Germans and Italians," said one soldier. "They were almost ferocious in their denunciation of this type of warfare. Such was the scramble that we had no opportunity of getting into lifeboats."

Another British soldier said the Germans were "big, hulking brutes" who tried to sweep aside the Italians in a rush for lifeboats and had to be "forcibly" restrained. He added that the "bitter hostility" between Germans and Italians was apparent on both the Arandora Star and the rescue ship.

Many Members Of Crew Saved

The Blue Star Line, owners of the liner, said that "a fair proportion" of the crew was saved.

No estimate of the casualties was available, but the Italians, most of whom were traders in England before Mussolini declared war, were stated to have been the worst sufferers.

A Canadian ship was the first vessel to answer the SOS that crackled out when the torpedo struck.

"This Canadian ship raced up with every ounce of her speed," said a rescued guard. "The ship loaded herself to the hilt with men plucked from the water."

On board the Canadian ship, the crew did "everything possible to make us comfortable," he added.

Hull Ripped Open By Torpedo Blast

A survivor said one torpedo must have ripped the ship open, as she began to settle rapidly. "Lifeboats were lowered and rafts were released," he said. "I grabbed a plank. After two hours in the water I was hauled aboard an already overcrowded lifeboat. It had 150 persons aboard."

"As the ship went down the captain and several of the ship's officers were standing on the bridge and on the decks. Several of them, we fear, went down with the vessel."

The ship was attacked in broad daylight, at 6 in the morning.

A Londoner who described how Italians and Germans fought each other in the mad scramble for boats said:

"Once 30 men were fighting with each other in a rush to slide down a rope to the boats."

The vessel's lighting system was put out of action by the explosion. Firemen, oilers and everyone below had to climb to the decks in darkness.

Nazis on Record They Sank Ship

BERLIN (AP)—Following is the text of today's German communiqué:

"Lt.-Capt. Shuhart with his U-boat sank 24,000 registered tons of enemy merchantman shipping space, among which was the British steamer Athel-laird, 8,900 tons."

"Another submarine torpedoed the armed English steamship Arandora Star, 15,500 tons, west of North Channel, the strait between Scotland and Ireland."

(The Admiralty announced yesterday that British shipping losses in the week ended June 24 totaled 88,259 tons.)

"On July 2 German fighting planes in the course of armed reconnaissance over the Channel coast attacked a convoy and sank a freighter of 12,000 tons as well as a freighter of 6,000 tons. Another freighter of 8,000 tons was severely damaged by bomb hits."

(There was no confirmation of these claims.)

All-day Air Raids on Britain

LONDON (CP)—German bombers in all-day attacks today over Britain killed two persons and injured 22.

The raiders dropped bombs on the southeast coast, in the north-east of England, in Scotland and on the eastern English shore.

Three German bombers were shot down; one of them in a fierce fight off the southeast coast.

Today's casualties brought to 15 dead and approximately 142 wounded the total for the past 24 hours.

R.A.F. Hits Nazis At Many Points

New stats at the Germans were made meantime by the Royal Air Force, the air ministry announced in a communiqué which read:

"Aircraft of the bomber command of the R.A.F. continued their attacks Tuesday night. Targets included airdromes in Denmark and Belgium, communications in the Ruhr and Westphalia, objectives at Hamburg and Dortmund and docks at Zebrugge. All our aircraft returned safely."

"Aircraft of the coastal command have today bombed enemy bases at Texel and Ymuiden, in Holland, in the course of which they shot down an enemy fighter without loss."

"One of our aircraft failed to return from reconnaissance yesterday."

German raiders were continuously in the air over England today, both morning and afternoon. In southwest England a big building was set on fire.

A statement from the Air and Home Security ministries said:

"This afternoon bombs were dropped by enemy aircraft on the northeast coast of England and Scotland, causing injuries to about 16 people."

"Bombs were also dropped on the eastern counties and south-east England."

13 Killed, 120 Hurt In Last Night's Raids

"Casualties are reported in a Suffolk town where two persons were killed and about six injured. Our fighter patrols, sent up to intercept, shot down two enemy bombers, making a total of three destroyed today."

"Later reports of yesterday evening's raids on the northeast coast indicate that 13 people were killed and about 120 injured, most of them not seriously. These casualties occurred in the residential areas of three Tyneside towns."

One bomb fell in a garden, smashing the front of a house, and two others in an adjoining roadway. Other bombs fell in the open country and in the sea. Royal Air Force fighters went up and machine-gun fire was heard.

At one small town three salvos of three bombs each were dropped on the seafloor. One of the salvos landed on a golf course.

Nazi planes also throbbed over a northeastern town, but no bombs were dropped immediately.

British defenders tallied their 24th raiding plane brought down in two weeks.

At one point in the south a German bomber fled southward, pursued by three Royal Air Force Hurricane fighters. With swastikas plainly visible, it swooped to drop "whistling" bombs, then circled and dropped more. A column of smoke rose where the bombs fell.

This morning anti-aircraft defences went into action against German planes which crossed the south coast and dropped bombs at several points.

Anti-aircraft Guns in Action

A baby and a grandmother were reported killed by a bomb which demolished a house in a southeast coast town.

Several workmen were injured by three bombs which dropped in northeastern England.

A joint communiqué issued by the Air Ministry and the Ministry of Home Security shortly after noon said the anti-aircraft defences still were in action, indicating a daring daylight raid.

The noon communiqué said simply: "Several enemy aircraft crossed the south coast this morning and have dropped bombs at a number of points."

The heaviest of the night raids came at three northeastern coastal towns.

Royal Air Force fighter planes took off this morning after an enemy plane was seen flying toward the southeast over the south coast. The invader fired machine gun bursts off the coast, strafed soldiers near the beach and dropped incendiary bombs.

An afternoon communiqué said the home security ministry said the bombs dropped this morning "were few in number and do not appear to have been directed at any particular objective. So far as is known only two persons were slightly injured."

First Bomb Raids In Full Daylight

The attacks were the first in the full light of day for the British Isles. On Monday and Tuesday, however, raiders appeared in the long summer twilight.

One lone plane, believed German, was sighted after dawn today near the coast but was quickly chased to sea by anti-aircraft fire and fighter planes.

The War Today

By GUY RHOADES

RAIDS

Britain experienced further German air raids last night and today while the Royal Air Force hammered back at Germany.

As on previous occasions in England most casualties occurred in one place, apparently chiefly among persons who had neglected to avail themselves of air raid shelters. This appeared from the disclosure that most injuries resulted from flying glass.

For the first time, however, a German plane appearing on the south coast loosed its machine-guns at soldiers on shore. It was not disclosed that anyone was hurt in this raid.

The quickening pace of German raids was taken in some quarters as evidence that the long-awaited German attempt to invade the British Isles might begin at any moment. Others suggested it was merely a Nazi attempt to repay Britain for the frequent, widespread and devastating raids the Royal Air Force has conducted over Germany for months.

TIME LOSS

No raid by either air force fails to have some damaging effect, for, even if no bombs are dropped, work must be stopped during the raids while inhabitants of danger zones duck for cover. Each raid cuts into industrial production, even if only slightly.

An illustration of this was provided last night by newspapermen who arrived at Munster in north-western Germany as guests of the German army. An air raid alarm during the night sent everyone below ground for three hours, a considerable slice in the night shift of industrial plants in the vicinity, and the vicinity in this case covers a wide area of Germany.

In addition to this is the huge loss Germany has suffered in blasted military factories, damaged airports, disrupted railways and water traffic and fires in oil dumps.

NEXT ENEMY

Germany faced an increasing threat from another enemy—hunger that threatens to stalk her next winter, hunger that will be partly of her own making.

Rumania, richest oil and crop-producing country of Europe, already partly dismembered by Russia, faced an immediate prospect of losing more of its territory to two other truculent Nazi-inspired neighbors. HUNGARY seemed intent on regaining Transylvania, even if it must go to war to do so, and Bulgaria, though not so truculent, appeared determined by some means to regain southern Dobruja.

POGROMS

In addition a wave of anti-Semitic terrorism swept Ru-

Final Bulletins

No Registration To Hinder Call

OTTAWA (CP)—Calling up men under the Mobilization Act will not await registration provided in the same measure, Prime Minister King told the House of Commons today.

He was replying to questions from G. S. White, Conservative, Hastings-Peterborough.

Mr. King said the government's procedure under the act would be a matter of policy which would be announced in due course. It was not necessary to wait upon registration, before calling men under the act and the Prime Minister said the government would not wait.

CHAMPLAIN SUNK?

LONDON (CP)—Reuters' news agency tonight quoted the German radio as stating the liner Champlain of the French Line had been sunk.

The report said the loss of the fast 18,124-ton liner, one of the most modern in the French merchant marine, was announced by the Compagnie Generale Transatlantique—the French line.

'Chutists or Balloons?

WINNIPEG (CP)—Royal Canadian Mounted Police this afternoon said they had received reports from residents of suburban Norwood that a mysterious plane had flown over the suburb and dropped two parachutists today.

Officials of the Dominion Meteorological Bureau here suggested the "parachute jumpers" might have been weather balloons, two which were released today.

Urges U.S. Training

WASHINGTON (AP)—General John L. Pershing today urged immediate enactment by the United States Congress of a broad system of compulsory military training. He described such an action as likely to help "keep this country out of war."

It was believed to have been engineered by the pro-Nazi Iron Guard, an outlawed organization of the Hitler pattern which King Carol rehabilitated in his efforts to appease Germany and seek her help.

Hungary, already friendly with Germany but perhaps vying for additional favors from Hitler, launched in parliament a bill to enact anti-Semitic laws along the Nazi pattern—laws which would, in effect, send Jews back to the ghetto.

Whatever the outcome now of this Balkan struggle, one thing seems certain—little or none of their food will reach Germany this year.

5 Nazis Bagged

LONDON (CP)—The Air Ministry announced two more German aircraft shot down tonight, bringing the day's total to five.

To Keep 500

NEW YORK (CP)—The New York Post said today in a news story it had learned that Mrs. James H. R. Cromwell, wife of the former United States Minister to Canada, had offered to take 500 English children evacuees and spend $250,000 a year for their support.

Advance Navy Bill

WASHINGTON (AP)—The senate naval affairs committee this afternoon unanimously approved a bill authorizing the eventual expenditure of $4,000,000,000 to add 200 combat ships to the United States fighting fleet. The legislation also removes the limit on the number of airplanes it may acquire.

Given Year

EDMONTON (CP)—W. E. Piffner, 30, Gull Lake, Sask., pleaded guilty in police court today to a charge laid under the Defence of Canada regulations and was sentenced to one year in jail.

Cabinet Shifts Being Arranged

OTTAWA (CP)—Liberal members of the House of Commons met in caucus today and exchanged views on sessional and other matters. There was no announcement at the close of the meeting.

It was learned the pending cabinet reorganization—involving the appointment of a number of new ministers and the transfer of Hon. J. L. Keston from the Finance Department to the National Defence Department—will not be announced for a few days.

Bennett 70 Today

LONDON (CP)—Today was the 70th birthday of Rt. Hon. R. B. Bennett, former Conservative prime minister of Canada, but he did not celebrate the occasion.

As usual Mr. Bennett left his country house near Dorking in the morning and spent the day in London attending to business affairs. He received a number of messages of congratulations.

Churchill to Speak

LONDON (CP)—Prime Minister Churchill will make a statement on the war in the House of Commons tomorrow, Clement Attlee, Lord Privy Seal, told the House today.

Trying to Be Funny?

Gandhi... 'Just cease hostilities.'

NEW DELHI, India—Mohan-das K. Gandhi last night appealed to all Britons to cease hostilities with Germany and urged that they settle their differences with "nonviolent methods," instead of "all getting killed" in "their beautiful island homeland."

The leader of the millions of India urged Britain not to enter "undignified competition with the Nazis in destructive power."

Gandhi said he was placing his services at the command of His Majesty's government to "advance the object" of his appeal.

Gandhi made the appeal in a message to the Viceroy of India, Lord Linlithgow. The message of 2,000 words began and ended "In God's Name," it was said.

New Ottawa Hotel

OTTAWA (CP)—There will be a new hotel in this crowded city. The Ford Hotel Company of Toronto informed the board of control and city council that it is proceeding with plans to build a $300,000 hotel here.

Query Release Of Joe Celona

OTTAWA (CP)—The government was asked in the Commons this afternoon who was responsible for release from the penitentiary of Joe Celona, one-time Vancouver vice king, after serving five years of a 10-year sentence for white slavery.

James Sinclair, Liberal, Vancouver North, asked Justice Minister Lapointe whether the release was ordered on the recommendation of Attorney-General Gordon Wismer of British Columbia. He asserted Celona's release was "a matter of concern to every decent citizen in Vancouver."

The Minister of Justice said he would look into the files on this particular case, but the procedure called for opinions from the convicting judge, the report of the penitentiary warden and "two or three other reports." The names of people who might have written in were highly confidential.

Prior to 1932 Celona was openly acknowledged vice lord of Vancouver. Mr. Sinclair said, and dominated the underworld of that city more completely than did Capone in Chicago.

"I know that when men such as this are released it is done upon the recommendation or the advice of local authorities," he said. "For that reason I would ask the Minister of Justice if this man Celona, who debauched and depraved hundreds of girls and who debauched and depraved the

Prisoner Escapes

"I'll Blow You Up!" He Shouts

Clarence Stevenson was arraigned in the City Police Court this morning charged with an attempted jail break. He made a dramatic escape from custody at police headquarters last night and was rearrested after a chase through city streets during which shots were fired.

According to the police, Stevenson was in the charge office outside the lock-up talking with a visitor. Suddenly he raised his hand, and ordered Police Sergeant George Varney and Constable Robert Davidson to stand where they were as he had enough nitroglycerine in a bottle he revealed to blow them up.

Stevenson ran out the door and up Fisgard Street.

Constable Davidson gave chase and closed with the fugitive near the Hudson's Bay Company's store. A crowd gathered and Stevenson threatened "I'll blow you all to —, and go with you."

With drawn gun Constable Davidson ordered Stevenson to stop. Stevenson again replied he would blow them both up if the officer came nearer. Stevenson turned and fled, heading toward the Hudson's Bay parking lot.

By this time Constable Sam McKenzie had joined the chase with the police patrol. Constable Davidson jumped on the running-board of the patrol car in an attempt to head off the fleeing man.

These tactics proved unsuccessful and the officer resumed running, firing a shot in the air as police force and the city administration, was released on the recommendation of Hon. G. S. Wismer, Attorney-General for the Province of British Columbia?

Conservative Leader Hagan commented that "this is a pretty serious charge."

WISMER'S STATEMENT

Attorney-General Wismer, who is in Ottawa, promptly issued the following statement:

"At the request of the Department of Justice, as is usual in cases of pardons, the views of the crown-prosecutors as to the question of whether the justice served by Celona met the justice of the case were asked."

"These reports were obtained and forwarded and the Attorney-General's Department had no further connection with the matter."

Only Airmen Now To Go Overseas

VANCOUVER—In a copyright dispatch, the Daily Province says that because of changed conditions overseas, Canada will not be sending more infantry to England, but will concentrate on what England wants, most—fighting planes and pilots, the planes even more than the men.

Infantry divisions now raised will be for home defence. By the end of this month Canada will have 125,000 men under arms. The 2nd Division is all raised and ready.

Air force enlistments are now coming at the rate of 1,000 a week.

NAZIS IMPRISON DUTCH ARMY CHIEF

AMSTERDAM, GERMAN-OCCUPIED NETHERLANDS (AP)—Germany warned the conquered Netherlands today against "further disturbances of demobilization" on pain of "sharpest counter-measures" after taking action against General Henri Gerard Winkelman, commander-in-chief of the Netherlands armed forces.

Charged by German authorities with taking advantage of privileges allowed him following his surrender, Gen. Winkelman has been dismissed from duties in supervising his army's demobilization and taken to Germany as a prisoner of war.

Anti-Semitic Riots in Carol's Country

Hungary Ready to Force Demands on Rumania

BUDAPEST (AP)—Hungary's military precautions reached the highest peak in her peacetime history today as she pressed long-standing territorial demands on a Rumania weakened by Russian incursions and domestic strife.

Thousands of men—some as old as 50 years—have been called to the colors in the last few days, and the army is now virtually at full strength.

Highways and railroads in the eastern part of the country were jammed as reinforcements, including tanks and heavy artillery, streamed toward the Rumanian frontier.

Anti-aircraft guns with full crews stood guard at all the main bridges over the Danube River.

There was every indication that Hungary intends to use force if necessary to regain the disputed border province of Transylvania which she lost to Rumania in 1918, although some hope remained that Germany, anxious to preserve peace in the Balkans, might be able to effect a compromise settlement.

The return to Budapest of Laslo Barossy, Hungarian minister to Bucharest, produced reports he had brought back a report on the extent to which Rumania might be willing to satisfy Hungarian demands.

Reports of domestic strife in Rumania, threatening King Carol's place on the throne, gave rise, however, to popular belief that the time is ripe for Hungary to strike.

Bulgaria—seeking southern Dobruja from Rumania—appeared calm. There were no indications of extensive Bulgarian military preparations, and some troops were reported to have been given leave.

Rumania Hopes For German Aid

BERLIN (AP)—The German radio reported today Premier Tatarsescu of Rumania told the parliamentary foreign affairs commission in Bucharest that Rumania will conscientiously carry out her undertakings to the Soviet Union, but he insisted "the countries and peoples of Bessarabia and Bucovina are Rumanian."

"History," said Tatarsescu, "will say we are right."

(Thus the Premier backed up Foreign Minister Constantine Argetonau, who yesterday asserted the ceded provinces "are and will remain Rumanian." This was interpreted to mean Rumania hopes to get them back some day, perhaps with German help.)

Many Injured In Rumania Clashes

By ROBERT ST. JOHN
BUCHAREST (AP)—Anti-Semitic rioting spread rapidly throughout Rumania today, complicating King Carol's difficult problem of trying to save his kingdom from further dismemberment.

Scores were injured, some believed fatally, in a number of riots last night in Bucharest and other places ranging as far as Jassy, near the border of Russian-occupied Bessarabia. Today they extended throughout the country.

Official quarters made no effort to minimize the seriousness of these disorders, coming at a time when Hungarian troops were massed on the frontier in support of Hungary's claim for return of Transylvania and when Bulgaria was pressing for a similar annexation of southern Dobruja.

King Carol was reported reliably to have sent a message to Premier Mussolini, the nature of which was unknown, and to have received a reply yesterday. He also received the German minister, Johannes Fabritius, in a long audience after the latter returned from a flying trip to Germany. The axis powers were said to be making every effort to avert war in the southeast.

Iraq Fears Persian Drive

By EDWARD KENNEDY
ISTANBUL (AP)—Well-informed Turkish quarters today asserted they expect a German-inspired drive against the oil-rich state of Iraq, which has an alliance with Great Britain.

Iraq, it was said, already has asked Turkey what help could be expected in the event of possible aggression by Iran (Persia), which now, according to informed opinion here, is pro-Nazi.

The Shah of Iran, Reza Khan Pahlavi, is feared here to have plans for carving a mid-eastern Empire for himself by collaborating with the Germans in their long-range program for a "march to the east."

Iraq was reported fearing that the Persians will first claim the province of Kerkuk, which they consider theirs since it is the centre of Shiite (Persian) Mohammedanism, and then go after Mosul in an attempt to cut off British oil supplies in the east.

Iraq, freed in the first Great War and under mandate to Great Britain until 1927, lies just south of eastern Turkey with Iran to the east of her.

Turks also feel that the war will soon spread to Syria in view of France's apparent determination to hold it and failing that Britain's plans to take it over to protect, in turn, Palestine and Egypt.

ISTANBUL (AP)—The Turkish government denied today reports that Soviet Russia had demanded of Turkey concessions concerning the Dardanelles.

Britain Rejects Jap Demands To Bar Chiang

TOKYO (AP)—Great Britain has refused the Japanese demand that the arms route through Burma to the Chinese forces of General Chiang Kai-shek be closed. It was reliably reported today.

London's attitude was said to have been conveyed to the British ambassador in Tokyo, Sir Robert Craigie, who has not yet informed the Foreign Office here.

Foreign Minister Hachiro Arima enunciated last Saturday a foreign policy based on creation of an "Asiatic sphere" in which Japan would be dominant—an advance from the previous position of insistence on maintenance of the status quo in east Asia.

The Foreign Minister's speech caused dissatisfaction among the military, it was reported.

A group of leading Japanese army men, said the newspaper Nichi Nichi, had decided the war in Europe had presented Japan a "golden opportunity" in which she must take a "strong attitude."

Observers expressed belief that the military men were disappointed in Arima's speech because it avoided both flat encouragement of the axis powers and an outright declaration for redistribution of the world's resources as a prelude to peace.

DENIES BLOCKADE EXISTS
HONGKONG (CP)—Japan's consul-general here, Gen. K. Okazaki, issued a statement today saying Japan had no intention of blockading this British colony by military measures taken along the colony's mainland border.

The Japanese actions, Okazaki explained, in no way blockaded the inflow of Hongkong's food supplies, since, he said, all coastal and foreign shipping continues unmolested.

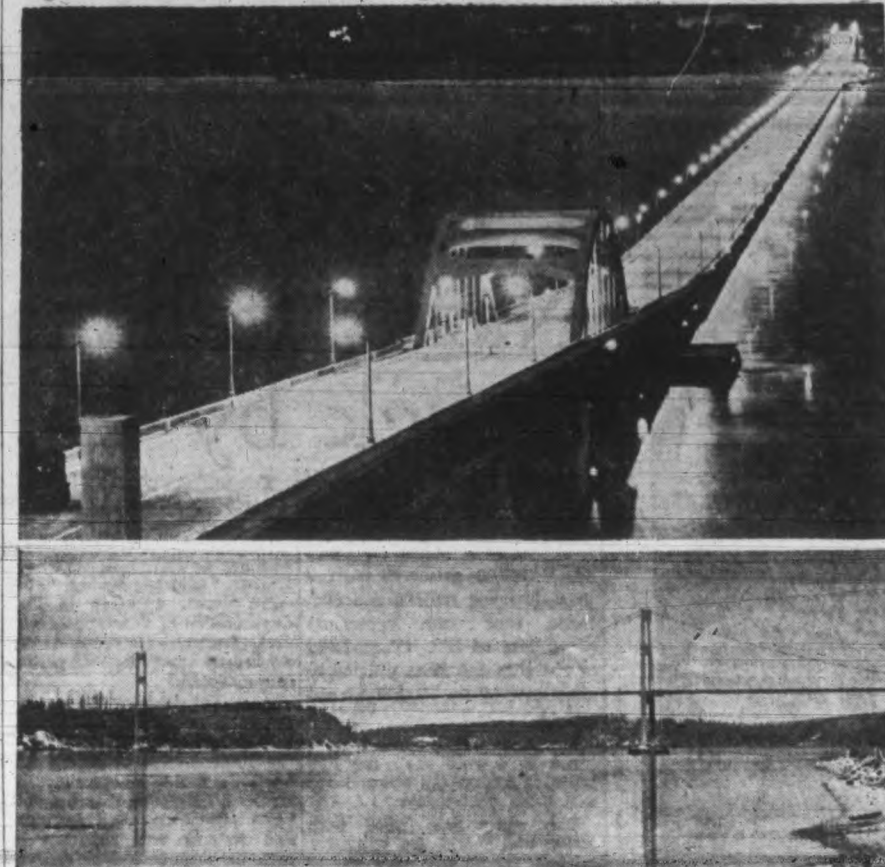

Japanese military measures taken along the mainland border are solely to plug this 20-mile gap in Japan's tightened and extended supply blockade against the areas of China controlled by Gen. Chiang Kai-shek, the consul-general explained.

The Japanese, he said, will arrange to permit foods to pass through these mainland lines to Hongkong.

EVACUEES AT MANILA
MANILA (AP)—More than 1,600 British women and children who left Hongkong in a precautionary evacuation scheme because of unsettled conditions in the Orient reached a haven of safety here today.

this morning aboard a liner. Less than 100 other evacuees of various nationalities, including Americans, arrived later on the American liner President Coolidge.

The first ship was delayed five hours at quarantine while health officers carefully examined the arrivals and found some who required vaccination. Then it docked at Manila pier, where United States army men and Red Cross workers supervised the embarkation.

Worried mothers gathered their limited baggage and restrained wide-eyed and laughing children who took the evacuation as a lark.

Most of the refugees were quartered temporarily in barracks at Fort McKinley. Almost 500 were placed aboard a special train for Baguio, the summer capital, where they will be quartered in hotels, government-owned cottages and the American Brent school dormitory.

The high commissioner's office announced British authorities had granted a permit to the Inter-Island liner Basilian to leave Hongkong for Manila tomorrow with American and Filipino evacuees. The Basilian could carry more than 500.

DEFENCES TIGHTENED

SINGAPORE (CP)—British authorities at this giant naval base today forbade movement of small craft in territorial waters between sunset and sunrise and prohibited all landings except at specified points. The order followed Monday's statement that "steps are being taken to bring Malayan defence to a higher and prearranged state of preparedness in view of the general situation in the Far East."

WORDS FOR U.S.

NEW YORK (AP)—The Moscow radio, in a broadcast picked up here last night by the National Broadcasting Company, quoted the Tokyo newspaper Nichi Nichi as saying of the transfer of the United States fleet to the Hawaiian Islands:

"No matter what measures the U.S.A. adopts in order to restrain Japan, they will prove ineffective in view of the present international situation. We intend calmly to observe the steps taken by the Americans."

The Moscow broadcast, in English, added that the Tokyo newspaper said:

"The Japanese fleet is ready for decisive action should friction arise between Japan and the U.S.A. and Great Britain on the question of establishing a new order in eastern Asia."

Death Accident

NANAIMO (CP)—A verdict of accidental death with no blame attached to anyone was returned today by a coroner's jury investigating the death of Harper Wilkinson, 75, in an automobile accident at nearby Wellington Saturday night. He was struck by a truck police said was driven by Jack Freer of Nanaimo.

Vote for Knox As Secretary Of U.S. Navy

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate naval affairs committee today approved, nine to five, the nomination of Col. Frank Knox, Chicago Republican, to be Secretary of the United States navy.

This action cleared the way for Senate consideration, probably early next week, of the Knox appointment and of the nomination of Henry L. Stimson, also a Republican, to be Secretary of War.

The naval committee vote came after Knox had been questioned at length about, and had denied specifically, a report that he favored sending United States soldiers to fight in Europe. Stimson's nomination was approved yesterday by the Senate military affairs committee.

Knox also testified today that despite President Roosevelt's selection of two Republicans for the key defense positions in his cabinet, "You haven't got a coalition government." There had been no official party action necessary for a "coalition," he said.

DOING DUTY

Knox reiterated, as Stimson and he had testified yesterday, that both men had accepted the cabinet positions out of a sense of duty.

He re-emphasized his advocacy of strong defenses, saying he thought there was still danger the United States might be drawn into war if any of the aggressors should attempt to seize American possessions.

Mrs. Helen Essary, columnist for a Washington newspaper, had been invited to testify today about an article she wrote June 22 asserting Knox had told her he favored sending not only cash, credit and supplies but also men to fight for the Allies.

She did not appear, and Chairman Walsh, Democrat, Massachusetts, said her husband, Fred Essary, a Washington correspondent for a Baltimore newspaper, told him that Mrs. Essary's recollection of her Knox interview was substantially what she had written.

Knox said he had spoken to Mrs. Essary at a party in Washington on January 30 but had had so many conversations then that he could not remember all of them in detail. He insisted, however, that sending men to Europe was not his position and never had been.

Auction of Jewels Brings $359,000

LONDON (CP)—In the greatest sale of jewels since the dispersal of the Russian crown gems 13 years ago, a single casket of jewelry offered by an unidentified mother and daughter brought $60,803 (about $359,573) at Christie's today. A pair of diamond shoulder-straps went in two minutes for $11,200.

NEW YORK (AP)—When the Paris shortwave radio came back on the air on regular schedule, C.B.S. reported today, it signed off a short program of German news with "Heil Hitler."

B.C. SAILOR TO TRY AIR FORCE

MONCTON, N.B.—After being machine-gunned by German planes while a member of the crew of a steamship on a voyage between France and England, 19-year-old James Birrell of White Rock, B.C., is on his way to Vancouver to enlist in the Royal Canadian Air Force. He left the local airport this evening on a Trans-Canada airliner, having arrived from Halifax on a connecting plane and is flying all the way to the coast.

Speaking of his experiences, he stated he signed on a Swedish freighter at Vancouver. From there they reached England and then went to France. On a trip from France to England two German Messerschmidts came down and machine-gunned the ship.

There were no injuries or fatalities, the only damage being some bullet holes in the lifeboats. The freighter was unarmed, as are all neutrals, but this did not make any difference to the Germans. The youthful adventurer stated he just missed seeing one great air battle, but the Royal Air Force, he said, is far superior to the Germans. One R.A.F. fighter will take on five Germans without any hesitation, who promptly turn tail and their whole thought is of escape. The 19-year-old aspirant to the fighting air forces says from what he saw and heard England is well prepared, and that Germany will be all through by the spring, a big factor being the blockade by British naval forces. Germany, he said is in a bad way for materials and food, and she has lost a tremendous number of planes.

22,000 French Fought After Armistice

LONDON (CP)—A Reuters news agency dispatch today from Vichy, France, said Gen. Maxime Weygand in an order of the day disclosed that 22,000 French troops in the Maginot Line, unaware of the armistice with Germany, fought for five days after the "cease fire" order.

Gen. Weygand said the troops were "surrounded in fortifications they had been ordered to defend to the end" and the order to end resistance did not reach them.

"Refusing all communications of the enemy," he said, "they continued the battle until the French command was able to communicate with them."

"This page of valor and faithfulness to military duty adds to those already written."

Packard to Build 9,000 Plane Motors

WASHINGTON (AP)—The national defence commission today announced the Packard Motor Company had agreed tentatively to undertake a contract for 9,000 aircraft engines, 6,000 for Great Britain and 3,000 for the United States.

William S. Knudsen, in charge of defence production, said the agreement was subject to approval of the Packard directors. Henry Ford had refused the order, saying he would produce only for the defence of the United States.

Meanwhile, measures were taken to submit to Congress a vast, supplementary defence program, expected to cost upwards of $5,000,000,000 and designed to take long strides toward building up the United States air forces toward a 50,000-plane goal.

MASS OUTPUT

The program, discussed today at the White House, is intended to start mass production of planes, tanks and guns.

Details were worked out in a conference between President Roosevelt and key officials in the defence program, but the necessity for completing some factors for the navy probably will result in holding up its submission to Congress until next week. One informed individual said a message probably would be submitted to the legislators next Monday.

TWO METHODS

The multibillion dollar program may be split about equally between outright appropriations and authorizations for additional appropriations to be made subsequently.

The army is expected to be given some $4,000,000,000 in appropriations and authorizations and the navy another $1,000,000,000.

The navy awarded contracts today for construction of three aircraft carriers and two cruisers, costing $169,530,000, to the Newport News, Va., Shipbuilding and Drydock Company.

They are the last of the 92 combat ships for which Congress thus far has provided funds. In the past three weeks, the navy noted, work has been ordered started on two battleships, four aircraft carriers, 15 cruisers, 38 destroyers, 28 submarines and five auxiliaries.

Altogether 499,435 tons were involved, costing $1,140,000,000.

No British Break With Henry Ford

LONDON (CP)—Col. J. J. Llewellyn, Parliamentary Secretary for the Ministry of Aircraft Production, told a questioner in the House of Commons today the "answer is in the negative" when asked whether steps were being taken in Canada or here "to ensure that works in which Henry Ford is interested are rendered independent of his influence."

Col. Llewellyn said he was answering for the United Kingdom and that any question relating to Canada should be addressed to the Under-Secretary for the Dominions, Geoffrey Shakespeare.

Col. Llewellyn was asked by another member if he had considered erecting refineries at Halifax, N.S., instead of proceeding with schemes at present in hand "from the point of view of vulnerability, economy and available steel supplies."

The secretary replied it would not be in the public interest to reveal information on refineries.

Chemists say that the only truly synthetic fabrics being made are nylon, glass and vinylon-rayon being technically a "modified fibre."

British Ready for 'Jerry,' 'Fighting Now for Our Homes'

By TOM YARBROUGH
SOMEWHERE ON THE ENGLISH COAST (AP)—Drawn bayonets of Britain's finest fighting men glisten in defiant watch along England's new front line—beaches cleared of holiday crowds and studded with gun emplacements and pillboxes.

Guns are wheeled into place, pointing out to sea.

Sentries stand ready to cry the warning and fire the first shots against expected blitzkrieg troops.

Military officials today took reporters on a tour of defences around this once-teeming beach resort from which the civil populace is barred, effective tonight.

Guides pointed out machine guns hidden in the hills behind.

DIFFERENT NOW

Troops we saw along the sandy front were the men of Dunkerque, bitterly experienced in the Nazi war technique, but ready for another crack at "Jerry."

The Germans chased them out of Flanders, but it's different now, as one veteran put it: "Because we're fighting for our homes."

The troops' hasty Bren gun carriers resembling light tanks over hills heavy with history and spread smoke screens in rehearsal for attack.

STRONGER THAN MAGINOT

The depth of the coast defence system was not disclosed, but one high officer commented: "It's deep, all right."

Only a few civilians turned out for their last day on the beach. They strolled in the sand beside concrete pillboxes which the British officers say are as strong as those of the Maginot line, and not so easily attacked.

Prime Minister Churchill, who has said "we will fight on the beaches and landing grounds, in the fields and in the streets," today visited the Sussex coast himself for a new inspection of the defence works.

READY

On this resort beach a troop of uniformed schoolgirls, carrying gas masks, marched into the sand in a column like soldiers—escorted by nuns.

Out over the water an airplane dropped practice bombs that sent up white smoke puffs against the blue horizon.

Back in the hills artillerymen drilled with practice firing, aiming far out to sea. The beach defences were built with a foreknowledge they must withstand attacks from dive bombers.

Along with the defence works, anti-aircraft batteries are placed to command the sky over the coastline.

One conducting officer nodded to an artilleryman as we left, and observed: "Warm evening."

The gunner, glancing suggestively at the sky, grinned, and replied: "Yes, sir." And probably a warmer night.

U.S. ARMY, NAVY SPEND BILLION

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States army and navy have put their pens to more than $1,000,000,000 worth of defence contracts during the last month.

The contracts—covering items from beans to bombers, soldier submarines—represent, for the most part, the first big block of expenditure commitments in the $4,500,000,000 cash program voted by Congress for the fiscal year which began July 1.

Reports of this progress came as the senate naval committee started consideration of the unprecedented $4,800,000,000 navy expansion bill which would authorize a 70 per cent jump in fleet strength. The House already has approved the measure.

In compiling the $1,000,000,000 contract record, the navy led the way with orders for 87 vessels at a cost of $910,279,000. The sum represents hull construction and machinery only. At least $250,000,000 more will be required to complete equipment of the ships.

The awarding of the navy contracts put under way all the 11 per cent fleet expansion voted earlier this month, with the exception of two cruisers and three aircraft carriers.

Although a large part of the contracts represent funds contained in the $4,500,000,000 appropriation, for the new fiscal year, some—namely those for final equipment of warships—were made under authorizations for which money will be voted during the next several years.

Canadian Missing

LONDON (CP)—One Canadian is reported missing in the 17th War Office casualty list, covering an unspecified period. He is Guardsman Harry W. Moore of East Calgary, a member of the Welsh Guards.

The list contains the names of 16 killed or fatally wounded, 126 wounded, 29 missing, 12 dead, 19 previously reported missing and now prisoners of war, and one previously reported missing but now not missing.

Acquitted at Dublin

DUBLIN (CP)—Mrs. Ineult Stuart, wife of Francis Stuart, novelist and poet, was acquitted yesterday of a charge of "committing an act prejudicial to the safety of the state." A military court had been told she was suspected of aiding a man who mysteriously landed in Eire by parachute and who is still missing.

Ulster Adds Defences

LONDON (CP)—War Secretary Anthony Eden told the House of Commons the military garrison of Northern Ireland had been distributed to the best advantage, but said he could not discuss the dispositions publicly. Asked whether the British army's plans included Eire, Mr. Eden replied, "There is nothing I would like better."

Captain's Widow Receives His V.C.

LONDON (CP)—King George decorated with the Victoria Cross yesterday the widow of Capt. B. A. W. Warburton-Lee, who commanded the British destroyer flotilla in the first battle of Narvik last April 10 when Germany invaded Norway.

Warburton-Lee ordered the attack on German-held Narvik when the Admiralty put him on his own. A shell hit the bridge of his ship, the destroyer Hardy, and wounded him mortally. The Hardy was sunk and two other destroyers were damaged, but the Germans lost six supply ships, one destroyer was torpedoed and three others were set afire.

Sentence Commuted

VANCOUVER (CP)—Andrew Pederson, 40-year-old Vancouver fisherman sentenced to the murder of Mrs. Catherine Ethel Reid last year, has had his sentence commuted to life imprisonment, it was announced by his counsel, Denis Murphy.

Pederson was first tried for the murder of Mrs. Reid last March, but suffered a nervous breakdown. He was again brought to trial and convicted in April and sentenced to death. An appeal was dismissed last month.

'Chatterbug' Charged

ABERDEEN, Scotland (CP)—George Hendry, a schoolmaster, was out on $240 bail today after pleading not guilty to a "chatterbug" charge. He was accused of saying the King and Queen were going to Canada and that former prime ministers Stanley Baldwin and Neville Chamberlain had "sold out the country" and "should be shot."

Must Salute Flag

WEST ORANGE, N.J. (AP)—Anthony Barnett, 43-year-old war veteran who, the court was told, called Hitler "the best ruler in the world," must salute the United States flag in front of the Municipal Building twice every Saturday. He was convicted on a disorderly conduct charge.

Barrister Serves

CALGARY (CP)—Capt. Harry G. Nolan, M.C., K.C., prominent Calgary barrister and veteran of the 49th Battalion, C.E.F., in the last war, has been called out from the reserves of officers for active service and will be a member of the administrative staff at headquarters of Military District 13. He will hold the rank of major.

Many Mechanics Needed in Army

OTTAWA (CP)—Young Canada, pondering what to do in the war effort, might well envy the skilled mechanic, the most sought-after army recruit there is these days.

The military experts keep shouting that this is a mechanized war. Still of value are Rudyard Kipling's boots, boots, boots and the commissariat camels, but they have been largely superseded by caterpillar treads and trucks.

The business of war has grown immense and delicate at the same time. Thus men who can adjust precision instruments as well as those skilled with acetone torches and wrenches have first call in the army's needs. So, too, in the navy and the air force.

The army wants men with a knowledge of internal combustion engines as well as barbers and tailors, electricians, moulders, pattern makers, welders, blacksmiths, instrument mechanics, watchmakers, tinsmiths, chauffeurs, carpenters, topographical survey draughtsmen.

HIGHER PAY

The army prefers graduate mechanics, but sometimes will take apprentices and train them. Worth of a mechanic is recognized by his pay, higher than that of the fighting man, unskilled in a trade.

So great is the demand for mechanics that the army asks that no one, seeking enlistment, hide his light under a bushel. A mechanic should explain his qualifications so that his special skill is not lost for the time being. If he is a plumber he gets shifted eventually to the unit and place where he will be most effective anyway.

For those who are not mechanics, who have not had military experience, but would still like to do their part and be ready when the time comes, the advice is to keep on with the job at hand and learn the elements of soldiering at night.

127 CHAPLAINS

OTTAWA (CP)—A return tabled in the House of Commons showed 127 chaplains in the Canadian Active Service Force, five of whom are attached to the navy and 19 to the air force. The army and navy chaplains are divided by religious denominations as follows: Roman Catholic 50, Church of England 37, United Church 23, Presbyterian 12 and Baptist 5.

Agriculture Survey In Australia

CANBERRA (CP)—A nationwide survey of Australian agriculture has been ordered by the agricultural council, comprising the state ministers of agriculture, to ascertain how production should be regulated to meet war conditions. Aims would be to increase production of commodities ordinarily imported, or production of substitutes for these; and to curtail production of commodities ordinarily exported to European nations which are now cut off.

The United Kingdom now is more dependent on the Dominions since enemy occupation of European supplies of foodstuffs. Australia is providing wool, wheat, sugar, mutton, bacon, pork, butter, cheese and eggs, and it is believed increasing supplies will be required, although the outlook for wheat is obscure. Farmers have sworn without restrictions and silos are full, with temporary storage provided for millions of bushels that are unsalable at the moment. So far it is difficult to see outlets for the next wheat crop; and it will also be difficult to find export markets for wine, canned fruits and barley, the production of which must be limited. At the same time new markets will be sought in the Far East and elsewhere.

Rogers Estate $56,422

OTTAWA (CP)—Hon. Norman Rogers, Minister of National Defence, who died in an airplane crash at Newtonville, Ont., on June 10, left an estate of $56,422, according to his will filed in the Surrogate Court here today. The widow is named sole beneficiary. The will was made in August, 1937.

Joins Artillery

CALGARY (CP)—W. G. Bide, chairman of the Calgary branch of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, will leave Calgary tomorrow for Winnipeg, where he will enter the artillery training centre as a reinforcement officer.

The consumption of tea in England is reported to have increased as a result of air raids.

Canadians to See Polish War Pictures

LONDON (CP)—Arthur Szyk, Polish artist and friend of Premier Wladyslaw Sikorski, will leave for Canada shortly to acquaint Canadians with Polish culture and traditions.

He will exhibit his own war pictures there and in the United States and hopes to impress on the people of the new world the unity of the free peoples of Europe in the struggle against Germany.

Polish troops still are fighting with the British, Szyk stressed, and "we shall stick together in the fight for freedom until the forces of evil are vanquished. We don't let our friends down."

He expects to spend about six months in the new world and then to return to England.

Defence Charge

EDMONTON (CP)—Carl Chrisman, 35, pleaded not guilty to two charges under the Defence of Canada regulations when he appeared in police court here and was remanded until Thursday. Chrisman was accused of making statements likely to cause disaffection to His Majesty and which allegedly were prejudicial to recruiting.

Iraq and Iran

WHILE THE VARIOUS PARTIES INTERESTED in Rumania are shadow-boxing behind the scenes, while the world is wondering how much or how little Russia intends to keep Germany and Italy in a state of irritating uncertainty, an Associated Press dispatch from Istanbul quotes "well-informed Turkish quarters" as the authority for the suggestion that Hitler may be contemplating some sort of drive against Iraq—formerly Mesopotamia—which has an alliance with Great Britain. It is intimated that the government at Baghdad already has sounded out the ministry at Ankara on the subject of Turkish collaboration or assistance in case events should threaten Iraq's political and territorial integrity as an independent state. The country in question lies slightly south-east of Turkey, with Iran on the east, and, of course, is extremely rich in oil—the commodity which Germany needs.

How cordial, if it is cordial, is the relationship between the authorities at Ankara and Baghdad we are not permitted to know. Governments that were inclined to be friendly disposed toward one another a few weeks ago have found it convenient to divert their political glances to new spheres. It is obvious, however, that the Turks are carefully watching developments in Syria—whether French troops decide to defend it or whether Britain arranges to take it over and protect it, and, in turn, Palestine and Egypt. It will be remembered, incidentally, that Iraq, as Mesopotamia, was freed from the Turks in the first Great War and was turned over to Great Britain by a League of Nations mandate and so held until 1927.

The fly in the political ointment in this part of the Near East, however, is Iran, formerly Persia, in recent weeks manifestly more pro-Nazi, if not more anti-British, than hitherto. It is no secret that Shah Riza Khan Pahlavi, who has ruled since 1925, is still dreaming of or plotting a mideastern empire for himself. And it is possible he may now see his golden opportunity to collaborate with the Germans in an age-old ambition based on the Bismarckian policy of "Drang nach Osten." It is for the near-eastern potentate to work out for himself the amount of authority or material possessions he would be able to gather unto his fold under a German hegemony in his part of the world. But at this point the shadow of the Russian bear is interjected into the political and territorial scene.

It is a matter of record, of course, that the British cause in Iran has been systematically distorted by Nazi propagandists, both before and since the beginning of the war, partly by the use of arguments intended to convince the natives that British oil interests are bleeding their country. Early this year German agents began an especially intensified campaign in Teheran—the capital—their main contention being the serious economic effects on the country of the blockade. This point was employed to emphasize the fact that several Persian-owned oil fields had had to suspend operations. It has naturally not been easy to counter such effects as this may have had on the native mind by the reminder that Iran for years has been receiving substantial revenues by way of large sums spent there by British concerns.

It should always be borne in mind that since the waning days of the last century one of the cornerstones of British diplomacy has been the prevention of any power from trespassing in Persia—now Iran—and Afghanistan to a point from which India might be menaced. As far back as 1903, Lord Lansdowne, in the House of Lords, stated emphatically that any menace to British interests in that part of the world, naming specifically the Persian Gulf, would be resisted "by all the means at our disposal." Geography has not changed since. Political alignments, however, are now subject to change without notice.

Trades and the Army

ONE OF THE DESCRIPTIVE NARRATIVES of Canada's war-work sent out from Ottawa tells us that the army needs more than anything else men with a knowledge of internal combustion engines, as well as barbers and tailors, electricians, molders, pattern makers, welders, blacksmiths, instrument mechanics, watchmakers, tinsmiths, chauffeurs, carpenters, topographical survey draughtsmen, and so on. The point is also made that so great is the demand for mechanics the army asks that no one seeking enlistment hide his light under a bushel. Says the first narrative of this type:

"A mechanic should explain his qualifications so that his special skill is not lost for the time being. If he is a plumber he gets shifted eventually to the unit and place where he will be most effective anyway."

Suggestions have reached this newspaper that men with special qualifications, eager to do their share in the most suitable and effective manner, could be obtained in large numbers "if the government would go the right way about getting them." The phrase, "no one seeking enlistment" should "hide his light under a bushel" would seem to point a way round the difficulty from which we are led to believe some willing volunteers with technical skill have been confronted hitherto. It is obvious that means must be found to utilize to the fullest extent those men especially needed for the production of the modern machinery of war.

Important to Us

ONE OF THE MOST IMPORTANT FACTS of which sight should never be lost is that Germany and Italy will stop at nothing in their attempts to destroy the British Empire. This should be borne in mind as we read the daily dispatches announcing further objections to the presence in Mr. Churchill's otherwise highly-representative and thoroughly efficient cabinet of a few of the men who used to belong to the school of thought and action which the present Prime Minister fought with all the verbal weapons he could muster—both before the war began and since. Of striking significance, for example, was the action taken at Morecombe yesterday by the National Union of Railwaymen—one of the wealthiest and most influential bodies of organized labor in Great Britain. It unanimously passed a resolution demanding that "persons in high office associated with the previous government's policy of appeasement be at once removed from office." The mover declared that "our fifth column men who still are in positions of power ought to have been removed when the government was reconstituted" on May 10.

Displayed prominently in the London News-Chronicle yesterday, moreover, was a letter from Dr. Aleck Bourne, noted British obstetrician and gynaecologist, who said, among other things, that "it is desperately essential" that Britain's war cabinet be purged of "the men of Munich," who, he asserted, "are the same as the men of Bordeaux." Other parts of the letter follow:

"Not only the individual members, but the corporate membership of large industrial firms and some banks indicate a deep business interest, apart from a personal sympathy, with the general principles of Fascism. 'These and many others who were, and still are, firm supporters of appeasement, are still represented by the Chamberlain group in the government, ready to act as in France at the optimum moment. . . . They represent our Right, men who in one Allied country after another have sold their country to Hitler. The men of Munich are the same as the men of Bordeaux.'"

It is no longer to the point for some in this country—who still regard the business of Munich as something almost sacred—to frown when mention is made of those members of the British cabinet, who are evidently deaf, dumb and blind to all hints, as if it were nothing whatever to do with Canada. It is definitely very much Canada's business, very much Canada's concern who is having access to the most intimate details of British policy in general in these days—and war policy in particular. No sane person would be so stupid, of course, as to question the inherent good faith of the "men of Munich" at this stage. But the feeling of those who have sons and husbands in uniform and ready for the "Battle of Britain" where it will be fought is that they—especially in view of what has happened in other countries—would be considerably happier in their minds if Mr. Churchill did not have to discuss vital issues with minds not so aggressively anti-totalitarian as his own.

Be Careful With Fire

OUR WEATHER MAN HAS TOLD US that June broke all records for sunshine. We believe him. But he has reminded us, too, that the countryside is as dry as tinder—not because of undue heat, but because of warm breezes which have been particularly persistent of late. These, more than the complete absence of rain, have been responsible for the dry state of the underbrush and the forests. It is in this condition which behooves us who use the out-of-doors to be especially careful of fire. A hundred years are required to grow the trees whose manufacture brings us much of our industrial prosperity; a carelessly thrown-away lighted match or cigarette end will start a conflagration that will destroy a large area of material wealth in a few hours. Care and more care with fire in the out-of-doors is the insistent demand of forestry officials.

Some people feel gratitude for what you do for them, and some expect never to need you any more.

A PLEDGE FROM HITLER

From the New Republic
If Hitler wanted to frighten the United States out of its boots he could not have done better than to assure this country, as he did the other day, that he has no designs upon this hemisphere and that he believes in "Europe for the Europeans and America for the Americans." In 1934, Hitler said that "Germany has no territorial ambition beyond the return of the Saar." In 1935, he promised that "the German government will unconditionally respect the other articles (of the Treaty of Versailles) including territorial clauses, and will bring about revisions that are unavoidable as times change only by peaceful arrangement." Again in 1935, he agreed that "Germany has neither the wish nor the intention to mix in internal Austrian affairs or annex or unite with Austria." In 1937, "If the Sudeten territories are ceded this will be the last territorial demand I will make in Europe." In 1938, "When in Poland a great statesman and patriot was ready to conclude a pact with us, we immediately accepted the treaty, recognizing our respective frontiers as inviolable. This treaty has done more for peace than all the chattering in Geneva put together." In April, 1939, "All states bordering on Germany have received much more binding assurances (of peace) than Mr. Roosevelt asked in his curious telegram." And then in 1940, "I believe in Europe for the Europeans and America for the Americans." What if Hitler should decide that he is a European and an American, too?

CHANGING WORLD

THE GENERAL POLICY of the budget at Ottawa—the mobilization of the nation's entire resources for war without an inflationary process—is accepted on all sides except by the Social Crediters, a group which alone are in favor of a purely monetary solution. Even the C.C.F. approves the general policy, but as Mr. Coldwell said, would go a little further in taxing profits.

Behind this remarkable unity in Parliament on the immediate issue of sacrificing everything to the needs of the war is a much deeper thought about our future. As Tom Reid told the House, his Scottish accent and his sorely-tried mind struggling to pierce the fog, "the world is changing and many of us will have to let go of our old ideas."

In these vague terms, Mr. Reid was only expressing what every thoughtful man in Ottawa believes today—that the budget merely underlines and confirms a vast fundamental and irrevocable change in our whole system of society in Canada. The absence of argument about the budget merely indicates that Parliament realizes the changes ahead of us, realizes that the kind of world and the kind of society we have always known will not be restored for a long time to come, if ever.

UNKNOWN

ON THAT POINT there has been no dispute in Parliament when the thing has been put to the test in the budget, in the Mobilization Act, in all the other war statutes.

What the changes ahead of us are, what kind of a society we are moving into, nobody can tell, for so much depends on the outcome of the war.

But looking at the budget, and the mushroom growth of government regulation in all directions, Parliament generally feels that this country has already settled the great issue of the past, namely, whether the main mechanism of our society shall be free business initiative and the play of competition, or whether it shall be the power of government.

For the present, anyway, the issue is settled in favor of the state, and that settlement is demonstrated by the budget, by the Mobilization Act and by the direct state supervision through various boards and officials of the whole economic system. When government, one way or another, is going to take nearly 50 cents out of every dollar you, the taxpayers, earn this year, it is preposterous to argue that we are living today under the same system we lived under a year ago.

WHITHER INDIVIDUALISM?

THUS OUT OF THE budget debate the new issue emerges—not whether the government is taking over the direction of our economy, but how the state is going to exercise its new powers. What kind of men are to run this new machine? In whose interests? For what purpose? And finally, most important, how much of individualism is going to survive?

That, and every thinking man in Ottawa knows it, is the real issue in Canada for the future, the core of our politics. It is on that issue that future party lines must be drawn, and meanwhile they are blurred, chaotic, without significance. For the present, of course, there is no special need of political realignment and revision, since the future issues have been set aside in favor of one concerted effort to fight the war, whatever it costs in economic sacrifice, political sacrifice and sacrifice of civil rights.

That is why you find the Conservative Party endorsing the budget almost outright, the C.C.F. accepting it and not pressing very hard for any further steps toward its goal of Socialism.

O LOVELY ENGLAND

O lovely England, whose ancient peace War's woeeful dangers strain and fret,
Be on the memory of thy past
Thy sure devotion set!
Give still true freedom to fulfill,
Thy all, without regret!

Heed, through the troubles that benumb
Those voices, faint yet clear,
Chanting their deathless songs—too oft
To ears that would not hear;
Urging thee, solemn, sweet, to meet
Thy fate unmoved by fear.

The foes of all they held most dear
Defy thee in thy encircling seas,
Summon to causes, else forlorn,
The children at thy knees:
Oh, that their hearts in days to come,
May dream, unshamed, of these

THE BATHING BEACH

Pretty pink and blue umbrellas,
Sunny sea with fleecy sky,
Pretty dunes of whites and yellows,
Tell us that the beach is nigh.

Men and women in their scanties,
Whisper in the salty air,
Some are young and some are mellow,
Little sandy castles there.

Sodden puppies, babies crying,
Rubber necks and rubber balls,
Floating snakes, inflated horses,
Tutor in his overalls.

Ample ladies, sketchy ladies,
Maidens drying golden hair,
Breezy backs with bosoms shielded,
Water splashing everywhere.

JOHN HASEN RHOADES.
Observation by a country editor: "Smart chemists may add to the durable beauty of a stocking, but in the last analysis, of course, it's what a girl puts into it herself that really counts."

One gets a rough idea of the fruits of mass production on learning that the average price of an electric refrigerator in 1920 was $600; that in the booming 1929, it was $292; and last year, $169. And today's latest models are not only more reliable than a decade ago, but much prettier to glance at.

WE ASKED FOR IT

OUR CANADIAN SHIPS, like the others, are rushing to get as many of the civilians as possible out of Hongkong before the expected Japanese blow falls. The choice which faced Europe in the past decade—fight or surrender—begins to come right home to our own doorstep out here in the Pacific. In order to keep our thinking straight we might remember that we asked for what is happening.

We strengthened the hand that is about to hit us. We supplied the war materials which are now about to be used in the attempt to drive the British entirely out of the Far East.

If we are inclined to feel disgust at the spectacle of French business interests throwing their whole weight behind the pro-German faction in France, as soon as the German advance had passed their own factories; if we wonder at the paradox of Henry Ford exalting himself above the Congress and government of his own country, and dictating the terms on which he will condescend to make airplane engines; if we are shocked and perplexed at the spectacle of people in high places aiding and abetting the gangsters who literally shoot their plan to enslave the whole earth—let us forget for a while these phenomena which seem so far away. For all the basic causes which helped to achieve the downfall of our country after country in Europe are working right here among us. And unless we take the lesson to heart in time the final effect will be the same here also.

THIRD YEAR

THIS MONTH will see the beginning of the third year of the invasion of China by Japan. Unless all signs fail, it will also see the beginning of the Japanese attempt to drive from the Far East all western powers which have there anything that Japan wants.

When the war in China started what happened? Under the Nine Power Treaty which Britain, the

ESTIMATING HITLER

Anne O'Hara McCormick, New York Times
The grave danger now is that the world will go to the other extreme and overestimate German strength as much as it underestimated it before. This tendency is very evident in Washington, which is so taken by surprise by the debacle of France that it is in a panic. Too obviously Hitler is not the mountebank with a silly mustache the French press has featured all these years; but neither is he the almighty conqueror looming on the American horizon. What we are witnessing is not so much the strength of Germany as the military unpreparedness and divided councils of his opponents. The leaders of Germany are ordinary, self-seeking, unscrupulous men who have used despotic power to turn a docile, industrious and commonplace people into a gigantic army.

These people are good material for efficient organization because they are good servants, and in the mass both stupid and tractable.

Hitler is no brilliant innovator either in government or in war. He is following an old plan, employing classic tactics, and succeeding because he has trained a human machine to function as if it were not human. Five-sixths of his strength is discipline—a discipline employed for a common aim—his aim. Even if it were not true that he conquers has succeeded in ruling the world, it would be apparent to any one who has watched the Nazi machine being hammered into shape that it is not infallible, invincible or superlatively strong. It is only as strong as democracy is weak, complacent and undisciplined. Any free country can beat it hands down if it works and arms and believes in itself all as hard.

UNITED STATES AND CANADA

United States and Canada had solemnly signed, we were specifically pledged to uphold the national sovereignty and territorial integrity of China. Did we take any steps to uphold that treaty? Not at all. The British did nothing, the Americans did nothing. Nobody did anything to help China.

On the other hand, we did plenty to help Japan. We sold Japan everything she wanted to buy to enable her to wage the war we were solemnly and specifically pledged to prevent. Our exports to Japan soared. That was true of nickel from Ontario. It was also true of copper and other metals from B.C. Indeed our government right here in B.C. gave the Japanese the right to open and work low-grade copper mines. Here and there outraged people, as at Nanaimo and Victoria, overturned trucks of scrap metal consigned to Japan. But even many months after the war had started in Europe large contracts were renewed right here in B.C. to facilitate the supply of out-and-out war materials to Japan.

ASKED FOR IT

DURING ALL these years there were meetings of protest. Speaker after speaker from China appealed to us here. There were beautiful young girls, and solemn learned Catholic bishops. But their story was always the same. It was this: If you will not help us, for God's sake stop helping our enemies.

I detest people who cheerfully bob up, at every time of trouble, with the inevitable "I told you so." But from the very beginning of the war in China ordinary people like myself were doing our best to show that the war metals we were shipping out to Japan would sooner or later come back in the form of bombs and bullets in the bodies of our own flesh and blood, and kith and kin.

As a people, we asked for what we are going to get. It serves us right. The trouble is, as always, that the wrong people will have to carry the load of trying to undo the mistakes of the others.

AT LAST

From Brantford Express
Instead of ending their day's duties at 4 p.m. Ottawa civil servants have been ordered to continue at work until 5 p.m. during the present emergency. Without doubt they will realize the necessity for the move and in any event most of the taxpayers who pay them have always had to work for much longer hours.

Our revolution marches with us.—Dr. Robert Ley, U.S. German Labor Front leader.

DEADLY PERILS

From Ottawa Journal

Today democracy, in desperate jeopardy, faces tests for which it never was intended. If it is to survive it must marshal its strength with the determination that its enemies have shown. The luxuries of freedom, of indecision, of wishful thinking, of partisanship and petty bickering, have become deadly perils; things to be put aside.

This is no time for disbelief in democracy. No time for the glorification of autocracy. It is a time for passionate faith in our democratic creed—for sacrifice, clear vision, and courage. A time to remember that the democrat—the freeman—is the better man.

Princess Alice is Hostess to Many Evacuees

OTTAWA (CP)—Among the first to open her home to evacuees from Great Britain, Her Royal Highness the Princess Alice, has welcomed three children to Government House since her arrival here June 21. Three more will come this week.

Foremost consideration just now for the wife of the Earl of Athlone, Governor-General of Canada, is the settlement of thousands of children to be brought from Great Britain and Canada for the duration of the war. Meantime the two little daughters of Princess Juliana of the Netherlands, Beatrix, 2½, and Irene, nine months, play in the Rideau Hall grounds every day.

Baroness Rouell, lady-in-waiting to Princess Juliana, has arrived at Rideau Hall with her young daughter to add to the royal refugees who came from England after fleeing Nazi-occupied Holland. They, too, will remain for some time.

Later this week three small grandchildren of the Governor-General will come with their mother, Lady May Abel-Smith, to stay probably until the war is over.

NOTABLE REFUGEES
QUEBEC (CP)—Lady May Abel-Smith, daughter of the Earl of Athlone and the Princess Alice, arrived here yesterday from Great Britain with her three children, Anne, seven; Richard, six, and Elizabeth, three. She will visit her parents at Rideau Hall. "I don't know how long we will be in the country," she told reporters, but added that she would probably stay for several months.

Arriving on the same ship was Frau Engelbert Dollfuss, widow of the Chancellor of Austria, and her two children, 12-year-old Eva and Rudi, nine. Frau Dollfuss has lived in rural England for the last two years. Previously she had lived in various parts of Europe since the assassination of her husband by the Nazis in 1934.

Permission for entry into Canada of Frau Dollfuss and her children was granted by the Dominion Immigration department.

How to Use Logans

Loganberry Fruit Sauce
Bring loganberries slowly to the boil and strain. To one cup of fruit juice add one-quarter cup of sugar, one and one-half tablespoons cornstarch and two tablespoons lemon juice.

Heat the fruit juice, mix the sugar and cornstarch, add to the hot fruit juice, and cook until the cornstarch thickens, stirring constantly; add the lemon juice; remove from the heat and serve.

Canned Loganberries

Fill scalded jars to within one inch of top, have syrup boiling and pour over the berries; put sterilized lids on and process in oven at 275 degrees F. for 30 minutes; remove from the oven and leave until cold before testing. If electric oven is used, heat with bottom element only.

Loganberry Jam

Allow three-quarters pound of sugar to each pound of fruit, and two tablespoons of lemon juice. Pick fruit over and put a layer of fruit and a layer of sugar into the preserving pan until all has been used; bring very slowly to the boil, add lemon juice, and boil until a small quantity will set when tried on a plate; leave to cool slightly before putting in jars; tie down when quite cold. Better results can be obtained by doing a small quantity rather than a large one at one time.

Helen Hayes Asks Liners for Children

ENGLEWOOD, N.J. (AP)—Helen Hayes, stage and screen star, announced that plans were being made by a group of actors and actresses to bring about 6,500 children a week to the U.S. from England.

Chief obstacles to the plan, she said at a meeting of the Bergen County unit of the Committee to Defend America by Aiding the Allies, were immigration quotas and a lack of ships.

HARTFORD, Conn. — Mayor Thomas J. Spellacy has sent a letter to President Roosevelt asking that this country send ships to Europe to evacuate children of devastated countries and bring them to American homes.

NEW YORK (AP)—The United States committee for the care of European children, headed by Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt as honorary chairman and Marshal Field as chairman, disclosed today the first boatload of children being removed from the British Isles to Canada would arrive there in about three weeks.

The committee reported 10,000 American families already had offered to care for young refugees until the end of the war. The committee plans to set up branch offices in all principal cities within a few days. It is understood that families with incomes of at least $5,000 annually will be sought as foster-parents.

Prisoner in Germany

VANCOUVER (CP)—A Vancouver seaman, James W. Burns, is being held prisoner in Germany, according to a letter received by his wife from the consulate-general at Washington. Mrs. Burns said she had not heard from her husband since he signed off a Greek ship at Liverpool in April.

The Royal family circle, seen above, will not be broken up, the King and Queen having firmly rejected suggestions that they send Princess Elizabeth and Princess Margaret Rose to the Dominions for the duration of the war. Their Majesties prefer to share whatever family perils there may be with the people of Britain.

8,000 Blankets Are Sent From B.C.

British Columbia provided 8,000 blankets in response to the appeal of Red Cross. More than 75,000 have been collected throughout the Dominion.

Already several shipments have crossed the Atlantic to Britain to fill the gap made by heavy losses of supplies in Flanders. Other blankets are being held in warehouses in readiness to ship whenever needed. Some of these will be wanted in Canada as soon as the influx of refugees commences. Offers of ambulance are still pouring in to the headquarters of the B.C. division. The citizens of Kelowna sent a cheque for one vehicle, while the men of one logging camp and one mining camp have signified their intention of donating one day's pay from their next cheque.

Orphans Enjoying Holiday Period

The ladies' committee of the B.C. Protestant Orphans' Home met yesterday at the Home, with the president, Mrs. D. C. Hughes, in the chair, and the following members were present: Mesdames E. M. Brown, Dillabough, J. Cox, Luney, Humphries, Coutts, Redman, Simpson, King, Dinmore, and the Misses Murray and Newbury.

The children are all enjoying their holidays. Fred Donaghy will attend the boys' brigade camp and three of the boys are going to camp at Maple Bay with Mr. Shepherd. The staff are also starting on their holidays, Miss Trask, the cook, being away now. One hundred and sixty quarts of fruit have already been put up at the Home.

Visiting ladies for July will be Miss Newbury and Miss Murray. Recent hearing tests indicate that about one person in 25 has trouble hearing in an auditorium, and one in 400 has difficulty over the telephone.

At a recent New York rally, the Women Flyers of America, Inc., announced plans to train women as pilots to replace men who may be called from civilian aviation for national defense. ### Little Princesses Will Remain in England

LONDON (CP)—The King and Queen have firmly rejected suggestions from influential quarters that Princess Elizabeth, 14, and her sister, Princess Margaret Rose, be sent out of the country to one of the Dominions because of the danger of a German invasion, the Daily Mail said today.

Repeated efforts to persuade Their Majesties to send the two princesses to a safer land have received this answer in effect: "We all face a common peril. Thousands of parents in this country are compelled to keep their children at home. We would prefer to share whatever family perils there may be with parents of this country."

The attempts to get the royal children out of the country have been redoubled, the Daily Mail said, since the threat of invasion has become acute. But, the paper added, they always have received the same reply "deeply indicative of the feelings of the King and Queen at the present time."

The princesses are not seen in public these days. Palace sources said they are "somewhere in the country" like many of England's other children.

They are carrying on their usual studies in seclusion, but there are no court functions.

Sports Mirror

By PETE SALLAWAY

IN THE OPINION of Henry Picard and Ralph Guldahl, the United States Golf Association should adopt a compression factor of 90.

The present sphere must conform to prescribed size and weight, but there is no restriction on the amount of compression.

Picard and Guldahl stress a fact unknown to the great majority of golfers. It is that certain playing professionals employ special power equipment which transforms stroke values and distorts the strategic character of the average hole.

Picard and Guldahl point out that a tightly wound ball will travel a mile if you have the strength necessary to flatten it out on the clubhouse.

Yet short hitters continue to beat long smackers . . . and frequently.

It's just a continuation of the argument about standardization of equipment. The U.S.G.A. made the ball larger and lighter. It returned to the weight of the old ball, but retained the new size. This was supposed to penalize the long hitter and put a higher premium on finesse, but manufacturers and clouters got around it.

Meh of might use the latest brand of power equipment in the form of a high tension ball and rigid shafted irons.

They play what is called the 100 ball, whereas others use a softer ball with a compression factor of only 85.

Picard asserts users of the softer ball don't swing because they are not strong enough to hit the tighter wound sphere effectively.

"Small as he is," explains Picard, "Ben Hogan flattens the high compression ball on the clubhouse and thus obtains maximum distance. I cannot generate as many foot pounds of striking energy at compact."

"Sam Snead employs a rigid 5 1/2-ounce power shaft. Jimmy Thompson actually uses a six-ounce shaft. Guldahl and I are not strong enough in the arms and hands to swing so stiff a stick."

"Guldahl and I use a 4 1/2-ounce shaft . . . one which is whiplike . . . more flexible. I need a supple shaft to obtain maximum club-head speed."

When one group of golfers prove their superiority, another always seeks to handicap them. Soon those running behind may ask the U.S.G.A. to make the United States Open a handicap tournament.

But, after all, the better golfers will prevail under any conditions, so why fool with equipment?

It's the coming into the ball that counts . . . in baseball or golf. It's impossible to standardize the stance and swing. Physical molds, muscular reactions, nerve reflexes and brain impulses must be taken into consideration. There can be no stereotyped instruction system.

But despite individual eccentricities, all top-flight batters and golfers observe the fundamentals of correct hitting in the hitting area.

They compensate for idiosyncrasies earlier in the swing before the club arrives in the contact zone . . . bring the bat or clubhead squarely through the ball at impact.

Al Simmons practically knocked players off the bench with his left foot. It looked as though the Poling Pole would fall down after each swing, yet he managed to crowd 400 year in and year out.

Lou Boudreau winds himself up at the plate . . . appears anything but comfortable, but the young Cleveland shortstop unwinds in time to be up with the American League leaders in total hits.

Lawson Little shows four knuckles of his left hand when he grips a golf club. He shuts the club face. His swing travels below his shoulder, or pretty near to it.

Denny Shute exposes only one knuckle of the left hand in the grip. He opens the club face wide and swings high around the neck.

Blue light causes plants to bend toward it more than any other color, whereas red and orange have least attraction, experiments show.

Half-bleached or three-quarter-bleached linen gradually whitens during use, says a home economist, and it is stronger than fully bleached linen.

Softballers In Extra Play

After 10 innings of battling last night at Athletic Park, Cameron Lumber softballers emerged with a smart 6 to 5 triumph over Victoria Longshorem.

It was only the second time this season the taste of defeat has been sampled by the pace-setting stevedores. This verdict did not change the standings of the two teams, but brought Lumbermen a notch closer to the Longshorem.

Over on the Victoria West Park layout, Garrison closed the distance between themselves and Brunson's Veterans on the standings' board by beating the Veterans on a close 3 to 2 count after 11 innings.

Cameron were on the short end of a 4 to 3 score going into the final half of the eighth, but in this session the millhands engineered a bunting attack that netted them two runs and a 5 to 4 lead. The Longshorem bobbed right back into the ball game in the ninth when hustling Erik Erickson, second sacker, popped a single to score Charlie Sansbury. The count was 5 to 5 at the close of the ninth.

Longshorem managed to get runners to second and third in their half of the 10th frame, but when Sansbury grounded out the attack came to a dead end. Jack O'Connor's successful navigation of the four-bag route gave Cameron victory in the last of the 10th. He got to second on bobbles, was sacrificed to third and scored when Vic Dale, after patterning in Jim Milliken's fly, threw wildly to the plate.

Bowling Saturday

Seek Island Titles

Island lawn bowlers will gather in Victoria Saturday for the annual men's and women's Vancouver Island singles championships. The men will engage in competition for the Peace Cup at the Beacon Hill greens of the Victoria Club while the women will play for the Wenger Cup out at the Burnside Club.

Tournaments will attract large entries and keen competition is certain before the new champions are crowned. In competition since 1919 when it was presented by Victoria civil servants in the Dominion and provincial services the Peace Cup is one of the most coveted trophies played for.

Mrs. A. Stewart of the Burnside Club is the present holder of the Wenger award and is expected to defend her honors.

Preliminary round in the Peace Cup will start at 9 in the morning and the first round an hour later.

The draw follows: Key-V, Victoria; B, Burnside; CP, Canadian Pacific; N, Naimo; VW, Victoria West; LH, Lake Hill.

PRELIMINARY ROUND. J. Jeffrey, V. vs. E. Eastham, B.; T. McCormick, N. vs. J. Line, V.; C. Wood, C.P. vs. H. Beck.

Games will be at 2.30 and 6. This will be the first appearance here of these American ladies, who will find local opposition plenty stiff. The locals have been hitting a hot pace this season.

On Monday they came out on even terms with Vancouver Athletics in a two-game program here. The visitors are leaders in the Tri-County Baseball League.

Tonight at the enclosure Manager Scotty Robinson's Tillicum Athletics, leaders in the race for the Rithet Cup, will oppose the second-place Navy in what should prove to be a good ball game, starting at 6.

Navy is determined to reduce the distance on the standings' board and will field its strongest unit for the encounter.

Either Louis Leonard or Lloyd Cann will go to the block for A's, with Kuwabara at the receiving end, while Manager Benny Southern of the bluejackets will start "Ginger" Vreeland against the clubmen. Tony Grover will do the catching.

In a pair of second division games played last night, Eagles gained an 8 to 7 win in the last frame over Navy, while Cubs defeated Cedar Hill Athletics, 5 to 4, getting the winning run in the closing inning.

Patty Berg to Join Pro Ranks

CHICAGO (AP)—Patty Berg, the freckle-faced redhead from Minneapolis, will receive $7,500 annually for becoming a professional golfer. That's $145 weekly. Quite a job of dough for a girl just 22 years old taking her first job.

The story of Patricia's turning professional isn't quite ready, but from inside sources it is learned she has made up her mind to accept the offer of a Chicago sporting goods company. It won't become official until the lights are turned on and the cameras set up.

She plans to attach her signature to the dotted line within 10 days, if she hasn't done so already.

There are only five well-known women golf professionals in the sport at the moment. The golfing sisters ahead of Patty are Helen Hicks Harb, Mrs. Opal S. Hill, Kansas City veteran; Helen Dettweiler of Washington; Helen Macdonald of Chicago, and Mildred (Babe) Didrikson, Los Angeles, the former Olympic star, now the wife of George Zaharias, well-known wrestler.

Mrs. Macdonald and Harb and Miss Dettweiler are with the Chicago firm which will engage Miss Berg. Helen Macdonald, former wife of a Chicago pro, has successfully conducted a golf school here for several years.

The "Babe" is on her own and last Sunday won the women's western open at Milwaukee.

Patty, a sophomore at the University of Minnesota, has won every title of importance since she first became a sensation at 16.

JAMES BAY AND JOKERS TO PLAY. It will be James Bay vs. Jokers in senior bowlers at the Sports Centre Friday night.

The league leading Bays are expected to have their work cut out with Jokers showing a great improvement the last week or two.

Jokers went to Nanaimo Saturday night and handed the "hub-city" a 16 to 15 beating in overtime.

Friday night's game is scheduled to start at 8.30. A preliminary game will be played at 7 with junior teams, Douglas Tire and Owl Grid, going on the floor.

Minor league play was seen at the Willows last night. Willows defeated Bluebirds, 15 to 7 in midweek league. Oak Bay No. 1 gave Oak Bay No. 2 a 16 to 6 whipping in Juvenile A play.

Louis-Baer to Meet in Chicago

NEW YORK (AP)—Joe Triner, chairman of the Illinois State Boxing Commission, and promoter Mike Jacobs today conferred over the proposed September fight between heavyweight champion Joe Louis and Max Baer, probably in Chicago.

Although no official announcement was made, it was Jacobs' plan to hold it in Chicago if Baer whipped Tony Galento. He did that decisively in eight rounds in Jersey City's Roosevelt Stadium last night.

Baer was up bright and early this morning, and dropped into Jacob's office to learn he earned $19,821.46 last night. Galento, who received the same amount, awakened from a sound sleep to deny rumors he was dead.

"I'm all right. I'm asleep, goodbye," said the Orange, N.J. fighter, who retired late after 10 stitches were taken in his face wounds and his left hand had been placed in splints.

The gate, contributed by 22,711 fans, grossed $97,254.10. The federal tax was $9,839.40 and the state tax, $9,693.86, leaving a net gate of $78,720.84.

Adanacs-Burrards Battle to Draw. VANCOUVER (CP)—New Westminster's Adanacs are leading the Inter-city Box Lacrosse League today by one point over Richmond Farmers, after battling to a 15-all overtime draw with Vancouver Burrards here last night.

Joe Jenkinson's goal for Burrards, 13 seconds before end of the regular time, robbed the Royal City club of a win, knotting the score at 13-all and sending the game into extra time.

Bob Lee sent Adanacs ahead in the overtime, but Jenkinson matched it to tie the score again. Adanacs again went ahead when Bob Philan slammed in a goal, but Phil Dickinson's goal brought Burrards even, and the period ended 15 all.

Galento All Washed Up By Eighth

By GAYLE TALBOT

JERSEY CITY (AP)—Two tired, fat old fighting men slugged each other into a state of utter exhaustion out on the Jersey marshes last night, and finally one of them, Tony Galento, was unable to go on any longer.

The fat tavern keeper was sitting on his stool, blowing blood like a harpooned whale, when the bell rang to start the eighth round. His handlers wouldn't let him go out, so the referee raised Max Baer's hand. It went into the books as a technical knockout in the eighth.

The fight—and it was a hard one while it lasted—proved only that there isn't a heavyweight in the world today worthy of challenging Joe Louis for the championship.

Baer, exuberant in his dressing room afterward, was shouting his defiance of Louis and demanding another shot at the big negro to whom he once surrendered while on his knees. But Max is about six years too late. If he is smart, he will challenge Louis from the houseposts now, but not get into the ring with him.

Without Fire. Max fought about as brainy a fight last night as one would hope to see. He took his time, dodged Galento's mighty lunges, and steadily punched the fat man into a state bordering on helplessness. But, even so, he did not look like a fighter to face the Louis thunderbolts. He looked old in the face, and without fire.

Tony, who had been a solid favorite, found the handicap of 24 1/2 pounds of fat and a bar room cut on his chin too much. The pounds slowed him down where he was awkward in the clinches and a sucker for Baer's sharp blasts. The cut, administered originally by a beer glass pegged by his brother, opened up round by round until finally he was choking and blowing froth.

Some near Tony's corner claim they heard him mumble that he had enough. I was about four feet from him, but didn't hear that. Whitey Blumstein, Tony's chief second, said he was the one who stopped it. Tony, through a heavy bandage about his mouth, said he had broken his left hand in the second round.

That, on the Associated Press score card, was the only round Galento won. The other six belonged to Baer.

A crowd of 22,711 paid $98,000 to sit in Jersey City's hand-some ball park and watch the two veterans slug and butt each other and grimace like a couple of wrestlers.

The annual international matches with the United States Seniors' Golf Association, scheduled for the same week here, also have been canceled.

Grain Magnate Holidays Here

H. E. Sellers, prairie grain magnate, president of Federal Grain Limited and the Alberta Pacific Grain Company arrived in Victoria on vacation with his family from Winnipeg, with reports that crops of the midwestern provinces are just now looking their best. With Mrs. Sellers and Miss Barbara Sellers, Mr. Sellers will spend some weeks at the Empress Hotel. His son, Surgeon-Lieutenant Edward A. Sellers, R.C.N.V.R., is stationed here. Another son, Flight-Lieutenant George H. Sellers is in England, with the Canadian Air Force. Coming through the area around Shaunavon, Sask., Mr. Sellers noticed the farms there were as lush and green as in years gone by. Recently that territory has been badly hit by drought and was in the dustbowl. Marketing of Canadian grain will no doubt present a problem this year, because of conditions in Europe, but Mr. Sellers said "we are in the happy position of having surplus food stocks on this continent." His company's records show famine is expected in Europe next winter.

Mr. Sellers is one of Canada's most widely-known business men. He sits at the council tables of half a dozen powerful financial firms, among them the Great West Life Assurance Company, the Royal Trust Company, the Imperial Bank, the Winnipeg Stock Exchange, the Maple Leaf Milling Company. He is a native of Port Arthur and started in the grain business with Joseph G. King and Company at Fort William.

Although Mr. Sellers refused to discuss it here, press reports a few weeks ago told how he had donated an ambulance for war work in Europe.

Letters to the Editor

SLAVERY TO MONEY POWER
To the Editor:—Once upon a time honesty was considered the best policy. Not better but best. Today the country which followed this policy, would have to proclaim a Rothschild or partner King Emperor. But this ruling house maintains its seclusion from responsibility. The only other honest policy, for us, would be to say good-bye to this foreign house and give outright sovereignty to our own people through our King Emperor.

A. C. BOYDELL (Mrs. E. Boydell).

HITLER'S "GROTESQUE"
To the Editor:—The following letter has been sent to Senator Burton K. Wheeler of Montana, and also for publication in the New York Times and New York Herald-Tribune.

"Since writing you on the 24th, I have read your Washington address of June 7, and feel that nearly all Americans will heartily endorse your second and third reasons for your opposition to the building up of great armaments, but that the first reason given, that they are unnecessary when there is no war or threat of war, brings up questions of fact and of interpretation. Many people feel that war is being waged against us now in the Pacific and that there is dire threat of war in the Atlantic. On Tuesday, Mr. Hoover advocated foreign policies which keep us out of war unless we are attacked. It is a question of fact—what constitutes an attack. Is it necessary that shells and bombs should drop on New York and Montreal? Will it be only then that this continent considers itself attacked?"

"Is it true that Hitler has characterized as 'grotesque' the idea of military conquest of this continent? But how should we interpret that statement in the light of his statement a few weeks back that he had no quarrel with France, and of his actions a few days back. Did his first statement regarding France mean anything else than that he wished to eliminate that country, if possible without cost to himself? We recall his words, 'France must be destroyed, let there be no mistake about that.'"

"Has he not also said that he regards Anglo-Saxons, English and Americans, one people? If so, is it probable that he would stop with acquisition of the British fleet? It is not more likely that the question with him would be not one of objective, but merely as to the best means to obtain that objective? Is it not reasonable to interpret that word 'grotesque' as an oplate of the sort which he used so successfully with England during the past seven years?"

"While I do not feel sure that Germany will win the battle of Britain, I have been much impressed with Mr. Lippman's statement of what might follow such an event. You have doubtless read this, printed in the Herald-Tribune of June 15. It is a pity that all Americans are not familiar with it."

H. H. WILCOX.
Uplands, Victoria.

"NEVER AGAIN"
To the Editor:—As we contemplate the stirring events of the last few days in Europe, we realize that the fitness and heroism of men, come to the surface, not because of war, but in spite of it.

Irrespective of who blundered, or where lies the blame for the entrapment in Flanders, no matter who double crossed, the gallant stand and evacuation of the Allied troops from the coast under such trying ordeals and against almost insurmountable difficulties, is and will remain an epic of bravery that will never die, but will rank with the charge of the gallant 600 at Balaklava. Few remember who gave the foolish order there, but none can forget the charge against those guns.

When this war is over and Nazism is forever crushed, we

On 17th Annual Visit

This charming couple, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. S. Bryan of St. Louis, Missouri, are spending their 17th consecutive summer in Victoria. For the last 17 years they have arrived in the city around July 1 and have remained until the end of August. "It's such a lovely climate and the flowers and scenery are so nice," Mr. Bryan said. "It is so peaceful, too," his wife added. "We spend the mornings visiting the beautiful gardens of your city and then we rest quietly at the hotel in the afternoons." Mr. and Mrs. Bryan are big boosters of Butchart's Gardens. Mrs. Bryan proudly told the story of how, two years ago, while she and her husband were walking in town, Mrs. Butchart walked up to them and introduced herself, saying that she had noticed them year after year, visiting the gardens. "Mrs. Butchart said that she and her husband had nicknamed us 'the hardy perennials,'" Mrs. Bryan chuckled. Mr. Bryan is library advisor to schools of St. Louis. He started his career in 1873 as a public school teacher. He has held the position of principal and assistant superintendent of schools. Mr. and Mrs. Bryan are staying at the Strathcona Hotel.

must resolve and be determined that never again shall any man or group of men have the power to create a war situation and doom millions of men, women and children to cruel death or needless suffering.

We must see to it, not we of the Empire alone, but the people of every country, that never again shall the flower of youth be sacrificed on the altars of Mammon or pass through the fire to Moloch.

It is almost impossible at this distance to visualize the horrors in Europe, but we know enough to make us ashamed, that is, the world in general, and stand abashed before our Creator for acting like the beasts of the jungle, when it is in our power and we have the intelligence to make this earth a heaven instead of the hell we have ourselves created.

Let us resolve, when hostilities cease, to go forward side by side as comrades and fellow workers in the only war worth fighting, that against poverty, disease and uncertainty.

CLYDE FRASER.

PAN-AMERICAN ADJUSTMENTS

To the Editor:—This is a call for a "hemispheric" test of local opinions for creating a Pan-American emergency administration for planning equitable New World adjustments for a new period of constructive stabilization.

2. Let us join to make the Caribbean "Our Sea" in such a manner as to keep the peace.
2. Let us join to make the British-French-Dutch Guianas a protectorate of all the Americas so as to keep down jealousy. Let us show the world a better meaning for the concept "colony."
3. Let us join to present a united and protected front as we take over from European domination our joint island outposts.

4. Let us join to work out sanctuaries for the unfortunate war refugees and Jews.

The Americas with their backgrounds of revolt against the Old World must give an understanding mind to Europe's revolutions endeavoring to shake off its own old world. When the custodians of the organized force of European revolutions get together as they undoubtedly are doing to build a constructive administration to work out the details of the New Europe, that fact practically forces the Americas to do likewise for their own sphere. Let us not be too tardy in working out the machinery for our essential co-ordinations.

Lightning war may mean well worked out lightning peace. Our solicitude for humanity must be greater than our possibly preconceived prejudices.

The Americas may welcome millions upon millions of war refugees because such mass migrations could well reproduce another period of expanding economy. But while welcoming the individuals, the Americas must protect themselves from the importations of those unfortunate systems refugees seek to escape.

U.S. VIEWPOINT ON WAR CHANGED

It was not until after Germany had invaded the Low Countries that a change came in the attitude of the American public against its policy of isolation and realization that Germany was a military power that must be crushed to safeguard the civilization of the world, declared Professor Bernard Bierman, head of the faculty of political science at Seattle College, in an address before the Kiwanis Club. He was dealing with the change in the viewpoint of the United States toward the war.

Dr. Bierman, born in Amsterdam and a naturalized British subject, said that when the war was in central Europe the citizens south of the border favored their neutrality policy, not believing that Hitler would strike elsewhere in his drive for power. However, their feeling against neutrality got very strong after Finland, Norway and Denmark had been raped, and vastly stronger after the lowlands had been invaded. The northern countries and the lowlands, the speaker said, had very high standards of living, were very cultural and had accomplished much toward improvement of civilization. The invasion of these symbols of civilization, he said, brought it home hard to the American people that Germany was out to get everything it could and that civilization was at stake.

He said that in the United States there were immigrants from the Low Countries, not in great numbers, but influential and politically strong, which, coupled with the aid of newspapers and politicians helped to change the American viewpoint. He declared that the United States could not isolate itself from the rest of the world. It was realized by Americans that if civilization were defeated in Europe it would be defeated in this hemisphere as well.

Despite a falling off during May, motor vehicle registration in British Columbia for the first three months of the current licence year was well ahead of last year, according to B.C. Police statistics.

Total registration is more than 6,000 higher than last year. For the current year there have been 105,903 vehicles licensed as compared with 99,579 for last year. This total includes 87,783 passenger vehicles and 18,120 commercial machines.

During May alone there were 7,544 vehicles registered as compared with 8,606 during May of last year.

"Way up the list of safety features in this new Silvertown is the Life-Saver Tread—that is specially designed to act on wet roads like a whole rapid-fire battery of windshield wipers. It sweeps the water right and left—forces it out through the deep drainage grooves—leaves a track so dry you can actually light a match on it! And when a pavement is swept that dry, it's easy to understand why this tire will stop you quicker, safer than you've ever stopped before!"

And, adding one safety feature to another, this new Silvertown gives you the famous Golden Ply. By resisting internal tire heat, this exclusive Golden Ply provides scientific protection against high-speed blow-outs.

1,000 Refugees Reach Canada

MONTREAL (CP)—Tired but happy, more than 1,000 refugees from the United Kingdom arrived here today.

At least 300 were children, some from the families of British nobility, others the children of workmen. The remainder were adults, many of them the wives of Canadian and United States citizens unable to leave their businesses in the United Kingdom.

Worn by the tossing waves which lashed their ship all across the Atlantic, the children were quiet and displayed little excitement. About a third of them were unaccompanied while others had been brought to Canada by relatives.

Passport Law Bars Minister From Riding

This new U.S. passport law may be all right to check fifth columnists, but when it comes to stopping a British Columbia cabinet minister from visiting his own riding—well, that's going too far.

At least, that's the way Hon. W. J. Asselstine, Minister of Mines, looked at it today when he wanted to visit his riding of Atlin in a hurry, and found he could not because he has no passport.

To reach Atlin by ordinary travel routes, Mr. Asselstine must go by way of Skagway, Alaska, and over the White Pass and Yukon Railway. To go through U.S. territory requires a passport.

Of course, he explained, he could go by air, but this would mean a special plane and added expense. So he has postponed the trip a few days until he gets a passport.

U.S. Airmen Welcome

OTTAWA (CP)—Qualified United States airmen applying for enlistment in the Royal Canadian Air Force will not be disturbed because of their nationality, Air Minister Power told a questioner in the House of Commons this afternoon.

Such applicants will be judged solely on their fitness and qualifications, the minister said.

B.N.A. Act Change

LONDON (CP)—Viscount Caldecote, secretary for the Dominions, introduced a bill in the House of Lords today to include unemployment insurance among the classes of subjects enumerated in Section 91, British North America Act. The bill, which applies to Canada, was given first reading.

(At Ottawa it is hoped the British Parliament will speedily complete its action as the government expects to introduce a bill for unemployment insurance at the present session of the federal parliament.)

With the Forces

'Rebel' Mowat Dons Uniform

George "Rebel" Mowat, who as a conductor for Gray Line Tours has entertained more visitors to Victoria than any other single person in the last 15 years, has turned his talents to the army.

GEORGE (REBEL) MOWAT

Rebel enlisted with the Third Division, Petrol Company, and reports for duty Friday morning. His experience in driving sight-seeing buses will stand him in good stead when it comes to keeping the gasoline supply moving.

But his entry into the army removes from his accustomed haunts one of the city's colorful characters. He is known from here to San Diego, and east to New York by tourists who have enjoyed his witty descriptions of Victoria's landmarks.

A keen sports enthusiast Rebel has played hockey, baseball and football in Victoria, having lived most of his life here.

A few years ago he organized a series of comedy baseball games for charity that literally took the city by storm and threatened for a time to wipe out the regular baseball league.

Rebel is married and has one child, a daughter.

The fact sex went into war service at the Bay Street Armories this morning when six volunteers from the Women's Service Club reported for stenographic and clerical duties.

The women volunteered, to work without pay, in response to a call from military headquarters which reports a great shortage of men in uniform who can do shorthand and typing. The women are helping out with the documentation and attesting of recruits at the district depot.

Another bank man to join the ranks is Edward J. Reed, accountant for the last 5 years at the main office of the Bank of Toronto. He enlisted yesterday with the Petrol Company.

Bond houses and financial firms are also making their contribution to the ranks. Robert Dronfield left his job with James Richardson and Sons to go into the Canadian Scottish. Dronfield was formerly with the Scottish as a corporal and has rejoined the unit.

Month for Thefts

Cecil E. Gould, who pleaded guilty to three charges after being caught in the act of stealing from a police car, was sentenced to a month's imprisonment by Magistrate H. C. Hall in the City Police Court this morning.

Gould admitted two stealing charges and a third of committing wilful damage. He was sentenced to one month on each count, the sentences to run concurrently.

AUTO TOURIST TRAVEL HIGHER

Up to the end of May auto tourist travel from the U.S. to British Columbia was ahead of last year, the B.C. Government Travel Bureau said today.

An increase of 2,829 was noted in cars entered direct through customs ports.

Increases were shown from all regions east of the Rocky Mountains, the bureau said.

There was also a definite gain in travel from other provinces over the Alberta border, but actual figures on this are not available.

Over the Dominion Day weekend, the bureau said, travel of British Columbians within their own province was considerably greater than usual because of the difficulties about passports to visits to the U.S.

This was particularly noticeable at tourist camps on Vancouver Island, many of which had to turn away scores of visitors because their accommodation was all taken.

The Red Cross acknowledges the following: "Happy Gang," Duncan, $1.50; Belmont Unit, $5; Employees Standard Steam Laundry, $2.80; Margaret Jenkins Unit, $46.73; Miss Frances Rowbotham, $12.80.

RECRUITS INJURED IN DERAILMENT

VANCOUVER (CP)—Two recruits of the Canadian Active Service Force were injured, one seriously, today when five cars of the Canadian National Railway's Vancouver-bound "Continental Limited" left the rails in the Fraser Valley near Matsqui, B.C. One car overturned and caught fire.

Four sleeping cars and the diner left the tracks 43 miles east of Vancouver, when the train struck what officials described as a "defective rail." The diner, carrying 22 army recruits from Okanagan points, fell over on its side and hot coals from the cooking stoves set the car on fire.

The injured were Sid Cunliffe of Penticton, B.C., and Edward Logie of Summerland, B.C. Cunliffe was taken off the train at New Westminster, and hospital authorities said his condition was serious. Logie walked off the train when it reached Vancouver, two and a half hours late. His arm was in a sling.

Occupants of the sleeping cars were shaken up, but escaped uninjured. Some passengers slept through the derailment. Work crews went to the scene from Vancouver and fire-fighting equipment aboard the train was brought into play against the flaming dining car. It was reported still burning several hours after the wreck.

The passengers of the transcontinental train were placed aboard other cars at the scene and brought to Vancouver. Doctors came aboard as the train passed through New Westminster to check for any further injuries.

Explaining the derailment, officials of the company said that the rail may have contained an air pocket and snapped after constant use.

Warden Brains Crippled Cougar

J. W. Jones, Saanich game warden, recently had a thrilling encounter with a cougar. He crippled the beast at dusk with bullets and, his ammunition exhausted, had to light a fire to complete the kill by braining it with a club.

The warden got a telephone call from a resident of Island View Beach that a cougar had killed one of his goats.

It was getting late in the evening when the warden arrived, accompanied by his son, Arthur, and a cougar dog. The dog soon picked up the trail.

In penetrating through thick bracken Mr. Jones lost all but four shells. When finally the dog caught up with the cat and treed it it was nearly dark.

The first bullet Mr. Jones fired creased the cougar's mouth and it crept higher into the tree. He missed with his second shot. The cat climbed higher. The third shot caught it in the side. In the darkness Mr. Jones was just able to discern the cat. With his last shot the warden caught the cougar in the spine and broke its back. It fell to the ground, but the game warden could hear it moving. He would not leave a wounded beast, as a cougar is very dangerous when hurt. He built a fire with twigs and brush near at hand and by its light secured a stout club and killed the cougar.

Champanne, Wines, Shut Off By War

People who like to drink champagne, port, the wines of Bordeaux and Burgundy and the sparkling wines of Italy, will have to go on short rations or change their palate to suit Empire wines.

The Nazi invasion of Europe has practically shut off supplies of the various imported foreign wines customarily offered for sale by the Liquor Control Board, W. F. Kennedy, chairman, said today.

The government stores have supplies for three or four months' ordinary sales, Mr. Kennedy said. But those who like a bottle of port for Christmas, or a magnum of champagne, are likely to be disappointed this year.

No wine is now being imported from French, German and Italian sources. Importation continues from Australia, South Africa, Chile, the United States, Spain and Portugal. But there has been dislocation in shipping from Spain and Portugal and the future supply is uncertain.

Mr. Kennedy said not a large number of people are seriously hurt because the imported wine sale here is not in heavy volume. In recent years, too, Empire countries have gone in for producing wines of the type made in Europe. For instance, French and Italian type vermouths are made at Kelowna. South Africa and Australia produce types of port and several others.

"In the long run it might be better for us," he said, "We will get used to drinking wines of our own manufacture."

FINAL WARNING SAANICH DOG TAX

Saanich Dog Licenses must be taken out by July 15 or the owners will be subject to prosecution. Licenses may be obtained from the Municipal Office or from Saanich Police men or from most neighborhood Grocers.

(Signed) Chief of Police, Saanich.

War Moves Made

On Several Fronts

OTTAWA (CP)—Moves to tighten wartime discipline and regulations imposed on individual activities, natural resources and industry became apparent on Parliament Hill today.

A series of announcements showed how government activities are moving towards a more complete mobilization of the nation's resources for war and a sharper limitation on the activities of individuals which may run counter to the national purpose.

The developments included:
1. Creation by order-in-council of a war industries control board, each member of which is clothed with wide powers over some branch of industry.

2. A recommendation of the House of Commons for stiffer penalties, including death, for persons aiding the enemy.

3. Announcement that aircraft needed for the British Commonwealth Air Training Plan will be available from Canada and other North American sources.

4. Announcement that the Citadel Merchandising Company, a government-owned corporation designed to ensure a supply of machine tools and equipment necessary to war industry, was in full operation. It will coordinate production and procurement of machine tools throughout the Dominion.

5. Announcement that 1,000
tradesmen a week are being enlisted in the Royal Canadian Air Force in advance of actual requirements.

Meantime, officers and officials of the Department of National Defence worked on plans to impart military training to thousands of men for home defence purposes.

However, men may not be called up for compulsory service for some time as training facilities will be fully employed with training the nonpermanent active militia as well as the mobilized units of the Canadian Active Service Force.

All militiamen will probably get a prolonged period of training in camp before the doors are opened to the new men who may be called on under the recently enacted National Resources Mobilization Act.

The War Industries Control
Board will consist of the steel, oil, metals and timber controllers appointed under the Department of Munitions and Supply and any other controllers who may be appointed.

Organized as a board, they will discuss common problems and adapt their policies to conform with those of the Foreign Exchange Control Board.

Lady Van Retains Lipton Trophy

COWICHAN BAY—Possession of the Lipton Trophy was retained by Lieut.-Gov. Eric W. Hamber's sloop, Lady Van, by defeating Seattle's famous Sir Tom in a close race yesterday, making it three straight in the feature event of the P.I.Y.A. regatta.

Victoria shared yachting honors in the second day's events with youthful members of the Royal Victoria Yacht Club, occupying the picture in the snipe class.

On her showing Monday and Tuesday, Lady Van, of Vancouver, stands out as favorite in the Isherwood Cup races being run today.

Lady Van, which has successfully defended the Lipton Cup for several years past, showed her superiority yesterday, easily skipping by Harry Wylie.

She easily outdistanced Sir Tom over No. 3 course in the first of yesterday's fixtures, but was closely challenged in the afternoon race over the triangular No. 1 course when she slipped across the finishing line a few seconds ahead of Sir Tom, piloted by A. Ayres.

OTHER EVENTS

Apart from the "R" class races yesterday, star boats competed for the Capt. James Griffiths Trophy and flatter class races were run off for the Blue Series district championship.

stroyers, sloops and coastal defence vessels for the Royal Australian Navy and a number of small patrol vessels for the United Kingdom.

Several of the patrol boats, of Australian design and equipment, have been completed in record time and Navy Minister A. G. Cameron announced the work would be rushed to completion. He said the industry was expanding rapidly and soon there would not be an idle shipyard in the Commonwealth.

Many armed merchantment have been added to the navy, while 150 overseas merchant vessels have been defensively armed.

Steady Increase In Air Business

George G. Wakeman, general traffic manager, Vancouver, was in Victoria yesterday afternoon to inspect the newly-opened T.C.A. office here.

Before leaving on his return east Mr. Wakeman talked over the business outlook with Wallace Courtney, local traffic manager.

"Air business is particularly good," said Mr. Wakeman, discussing T.C.A. operations. "We are in a much better position to handle the traffic because of our double-daily schedule," he said.

Passengers carried by T.C.A. planes during April and May this year totaled 8,556, compared with 3,247 during the corresponding months of last year, an increase of 163 per cent.

Total number of passengers carried by the government's transcontinental air system since it was inaugurated April 1, 1939, is 39,062. Each month has seen a gradual increase in the use of airliners for travel.

"We are well satisfied with the business we are getting from Victoria, both passenger and air mail," said Mr. Wakeman.

SURVIVORS LANDED

LONDON (CP)—Thirty-one survivors of the 4,127-ton freighter Empire Toucan, which lost three men June 29 when she was torpedoed off the Irish coast, landed last night at a west country port.

Two radio operators and a greaser were killed when six shells and a torpedo struck the vessel.

Wheat

WINNIPEG (CP)—Despite strong displays on outside markets, wheat futures prices failed to rise from their minimum levels on Winnipeg Grain Exchange today.

With mills and exporters remaining aloof for the eighth consecutive session, no overseas sales of Canadian wheat could be confirmed.

The strong showing by southern markets had a buoyant effect on the coarse grain pit where excellent support credit to southern houses induced gains of 2 cents in oats, 3 cents in rye, 2 cents in barley and 3 cents in flax.

Cash wheat operations had little feature although mills made moderate purchases of the lower grades.

CHICAGO (AP)—A sudden revival of buying inspired largely by crop complaints from the spring wheat belt lifted domestic wheat prices 3 to almost 5 cents a bushel today.

With most of the grain recorded in the final hour, wheat here rallied sharply in sympathy with leadership of the Minneapolis market. Need of rain in the northwest and on the Pacific coast was stressed by crop reports and rust was reported in fields as far north as the Canadian border although crop experts asserted resistant varieties apparently have not been attacked.

Alaska Air Bases Rushed by U.S.

By DEVON FRANCIS
Associated Press Aviation Editor

FAIRBANKS, Alaska—On 500 acres of a flat, sun-seared piece of interior Alaska the United States army has completed preliminary work for the runways for an airport which will serve both as an air defence base and as a tactical training centre at the "top of the world."

Five air bases are under construction in Alaska by the army and the navy. At a cost of perhaps $25,000,000 the services propose to set up at least the embryo of an air defence system.

Since last fall the survey and actual spadework at Sitka, Anchorage, Fairbanks, Unalakleet (Dutch Harbor) and Kodiak has progressed more rapidly than military men care to admit. Unalakleet will be a submarine, as well as an air, base.

At Sitka the plane hangars already are up. The first contingent of infantrymen was landed last week at Anchorage for the protection of the army air base. At Fairbanks a winter long experiment on the "staying qualities" of concrete for runways in temperatures of 50 and 60 degrees below zero is complete.

Territorial governor Ernest Gruening says Alaska needs more than 10 first-class airports for defence. It has no airport of that calibre yet.

McChord will serve as the base for an air armada charged with the protection of Washington, Oregon, Montana and Idaho and Wyoming north of the 43rd parallel, as well as augmenting forces which will be stationed in Alaska.

Already attached to the field or soon to arrive are the 17th bombardment group, the 89th reconnaissance squadron and the 19th base squadron, all part of the first wing, general headquarters air force, which is assigned exclusively to western states.

Immediate plans call for 1,821 men and 203 officers to be attached to the field, which will be given a temporary plane strength of approximately 70, principally the so-called "medium," twin-motored bombers.

NAVY TRAINING BOAT
MONTREAL (CP)—A 25-foot power boat, gift of A. L. Dawe of Montreal, will be added this week to the fleet of the Royal Canadian Naval Volunteer Reserve, Montreal Division. It was announced today. It will be used to train recruits in seamanship and the handling of boats.

III—JAWS AROUND THE CZECHS

There is no proof that Austria wanted to join Hitler's Germany. It is quite likely that a free vote of the people would have shown them against going with the Nazis.

Map showing "Jaws" around Czechoslovakia after Austria was taken by Hitler.

The Austrians spoke German to be sure, but they never had been under the rule of Berlin. Most Austrians were of the Catholic faith, and it was known that Hitler had struck blows against Catholics in Germany.

At first secretly, then openly, Hitler had built up a strong army and a big air fleet. He planned to use these in addition to German power.

Suddenly he started a drive to take over Austria. He wanted to do so peacefully, if possible, but said he would go to war if need be.

An election was ordered in Austria, so the people could vote on whether they wanted to join Germany. Before the vote could be taken, Hitler ordered his army into Austria.

Little Austria could not stand alone against Germany. Her former "friend," Mussolini deserted her in the hour of her need. No other power was ready to hold Hitler back.

So Hitler won Austria without a battle. His native land was made the first chunk of his empire.

There was a reason why Hitler wanted to take over Austria before he took Czechoslovakia. He had the idea of building jaws around the countries he planned to swallow. A part of Germany made a northern jaw around the Czechs. When Austria was taken, it made a southern jaw.

That point is important. In later conquests, we find Hitler throwing out "jaws" time and again, then crushing his victims. It is the so-called "pincer" or "nutcracker" plan.

At the time Hitler started to work on Czechoslovakia, Poland was bound to Germany by a treaty of friendship. That treaty was to be broken.

HOROSCOPE

THURSDAY, JULY 4

This is not an important day in planetary direction. The stars encourage looking backward and they aid in the inspiration of public service. Women are under a fortunate direction of the stars. The morning is a time for serious thought, for the mind should be clear and the judgment good.

Women are under good direction today which is most favorable for hospitalities of an informal nature. In all probability the young will be exceedingly susceptible to romance. Patriotic teachings will gain force.

Men in all lines of business or professional activity should be cautious in financial matters. Debt should be avoided with special determination, since international banking problems will become more complex.

Bulgaria comes under a threatening rule of the stars. Internal troubles as well as outside dangers are foreseen. Severe tests for King Boris are foretold. Turkey continues under a configuration that threatens the death or retirement of a leading figure. Alignment with powers that severe strain to the country which its military strength is remarkable in certain ways.

Persons whose birthdate it is have the augury of a year of first-rate prospects. Women should be on guard against persons of designing nature.

Children born on this day probably will be kindly, well balanced and talented. They probably will be affectionate and home-loving, but lacking in self assurance.

Dorothy Dix's Letter Box

DEAR DOROTHY DIX—For 12 years I was married to a man whom I loved madly and who loved me madly in return, but we fought and made up, and then we fought some more. I can't even remember the number of times he packed his bags and left, or how often I went home to mother.

We fought because we loved the thrill of making up. We were simply amusing ourselves, only we didn't know it. Finally I listened to my family, who told me that I must leave my husband; that I couldn't live like that; that it would ruin my health and I would wind up in any asylum, so I got a divorce.

Later I married again and so did he. My husband and I do not fight like cat and dog; but neither do we love each other. My former husband and his wife do not fight, either I hear. But I also hear that he does not love her and is as miserable as I am. Life is dull as hell!

ANSWER: I was under the impression that hell was rather a lively place—one advantage among many drawbacks. But let it go at that.

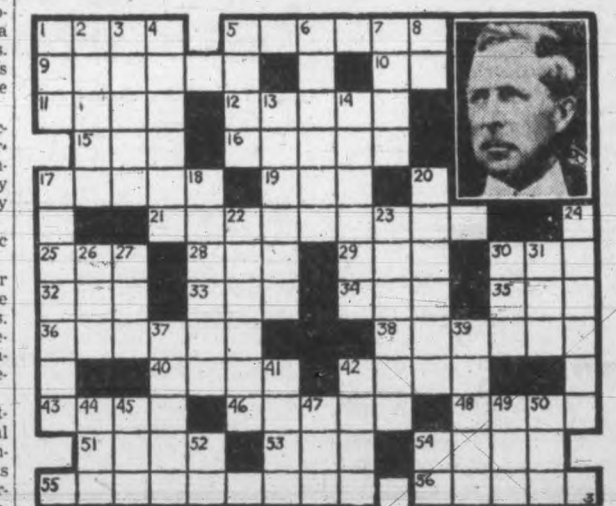

I find your letter very interesting because it confirms a belief that I have long held, and that is that husbands and wives quarrel for the divertimento they get out of it and because they enjoy a real knockdown and dragout fight. It peps them up and breaks the monotony of domestic life to blackguard each other and hurl insulting epithets at each other.

I have personally assisted, in the French sense, at many such family fracasces, and just as I thought that murder was about to be committed and I was starting to call the police, the husband and wife would fall on each other's necks with kisses and all would be lovey-dovey until the next bout.

Apparently a good time had been had by all, and neither seemed to remember the unforgivable things that had been said in the heat of the argument.

DOROTHY DIX.

I am really surprised at the way this medicine went to work inside of me, and I can't help but rejoice at the relief I got. It cleared so much acid, gas and fermentation from my stomach organs that my bloating went down and the smothering, breathless feeling and burning inside of my stomach is all relieved. It also had a fine laxative action on my sluggish bowels. I can sleep a full night now and get my proper rest. In short, I feel better now than at any time in YEARS, and if Mosby's Tonic can do all this for a person as bad off as I was, then I think it should help others who suffer like I did: so I gladly come forward with my statement publicly endorsing this medicine."

Teachers Enjoy Opening Recital

Students at Victoria's Summer School of Education today enjoyed the first of a special series of entertainments arranged for their instruction and pleasure at Victoria High School. Annabelle MacKenzie Edwards, leading Vancouver soprano, Daphne Carapata, violinist, Eugene Maher, cellist, and Beth Emery, pianist, were heard in concert in the auditorium this forenoon.

The presentations of the outstanding artists was given a warm reception by the teachers and marked a particularly fortunate opening for the series of extra-curricular activities arranged for the current session of the school.

Opening with a Schubert selection, the string trio gave an excellent interpretation to the First Movement of Trio in B Flat.

Eugene Maher followed with an artistic 'cello group including Edward Grieg's Air from Opus 40.

As the first of her solo Miss Edwards won a warm response for Tchaikowsky's aria from "Joan of Arc."

Miss Carapata followed with skilfully executed violin selections, including the Franconeur Kreiser, "Sicilienne" and "Rigaudon," Fiorillo's "Air on the G String" and the DeFalla-Kreiser "Spanish Dance."

Miss Edwards again scored successes in the vocal group with "The Bird" (Dwight Fiske), "The Virgin's Slumber Song" (Max Reger) and "Ecstasy" (Rummel).

The program closed with Miss Emery's artistic piano renditions of Arensky's "Etude" and "Waltz" (Chopin).

The concert followed the usual morning classes which opened yesterday.

Registration, continuing today, is scheduled to close tomorrow.

As the attraction tomorrow Capt. Elmore Philpott, M.C., columnist and lecturer, will address the assembly in the first of two lectures under the heading of "The Crossroads of Destiny."

The address will start at 11.

Plea to Ireland LONDON (CP)—Lord Beaverbrook's Evening Standard declared today that "Ireland is in peril and her peril is ours."

The newspaper, urging unity of Northern Ireland and Eire for defence purposes, said that added military preparedness in the island "is more than halved by political differences."

"The people of England improve the people of Ireland that they should search for compromise," the Standard said. "United Ireland for defence purposes is a paramount necessity for the safety of millions of lives."

A Belfast dispatch said an emergency mobilization of northern Ireland's defence volunteers was carried out early today. Every volunteer in the seagirt counties of Antrim and Down was called out. There was no official explanation.

WORK FOR BUSINESSMEN With all the new taxes piled on existing requirements placed on business, there were a multiplicity of returns and bookkeeping entries which bore heavily on business organizations, Mr. Hanson said. He urged demands for returns be lightened if possible.

Mr. Hanson said the government's financial policy should be predicated on a confidence in the ultimate victory of the British cause, and should make every possible effort toward that end.

There was no question of the readiness of the people to pour out their resources in whatever quantity was necessary to ensure the maximum effort by Canada.

FORESEES INFLATION Mrs. Doris Nielsen, Unity, North Battleford, Sask., declared she could not support the government nor its budget even if she were painted as unpatriotic. The budget foreshadowed inflation and enslavement of future generations of Canadians, and would drive the middle class down to poverty, Mrs. Nielsen declared.

Rev. Dan McIvor, Liberal, Fort William, lauded the budget and the way it had been presented. Like Mr. Hanson, he held there should have been complete closing down of the liquor business for the war's duration.

CREDIT EXPANSION Canada's fight against Germany might well be made more effective if Canada took a leaf from Germany's book of financial policy and expanded its credit until maximum production was attained, Victor Quelch, New Democracy, Acadia, Alta., urged.

Instead of burdening the people with heavy taxation and huge borrowings to finance the war, the Dominion government, he said, should expand credit up to the point where full employment is reached — just as Germany, destitute and without capital in 1932 had done to build its huge war machine.

Consistently, Mr. Quelch submitted a subamendment to the budget motion asserting that "there should have been no increased tax burden placed upon the consumer until Canada attained maximum production of desired commodities or full employment by issuing through the Bank of Canada currency and credit in terms of actual public need."

Following Germany's example in finance, he hastened to add, did not mean he was advocating Nazism any more than did the use of tanks or dive bombers just because Germany used them.

Belshaw, M.A. of the University of Washington physical education department, who is conducting courses in physical education, sports coaching and school health; Barbara Hinton, Provincial Normal School, Victoria, who is leading other physical education classes; Mrs. Irene N. Bostwick, Mus.B., of the Music Department, University of Washington, who is covering music theory and harmony, and Mr. Campbell.

Among Casualties

Chief Petty Officer John Roberts Price (top), son of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Price, and Paul Marcotte, 410 Parry Street, (below) were among the Victoria casualties in the sinking of H.M.C.S. Fraser.

In addition to his parents Chief Petty Officer Price is survived by a sister, Mrs. M. W. McKinnon of Vancouver. Able Seaman Marcotte was a familiar figure on naval athletic fields. His widow on Parry Street, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Marcotte, Transcona, Man., and a brother Gerard, survive him.

the Standard said. "United Ireland for defence purposes is a paramount necessity for the safety of millions of lives."

WORK FOR BUSINESSMEN With all the new taxes piled on existing requirements placed on business, there were a multiplicity of returns and bookkeeping entries which bore heavily on business organizations, Mr. Hanson said. He urged demands for returns be lightened if possible.

Mr. Hanson said the government's financial policy should be predicated on a confidence in the ultimate victory of the British cause, and should make every possible effort toward that end.

There was no question of the readiness of the people to pour out their resources in whatever quantity was necessary to ensure the maximum effort by Canada.

FORESEES INFLATION Mrs. Doris Nielsen, Unity, North Battleford, Sask., declared she could not support the government nor its budget even if she were painted as unpatriotic. The budget foreshadowed inflation and enslavement of future generations of Canadians, and would drive the middle class down to poverty, Mrs. Nielsen declared.

Rev. Dan McIvor, Liberal, Fort William, lauded the budget and the way it had been presented. Like Mr. Hanson, he held there should have been complete closing down of the liquor business for the war's duration.

CREDIT EXPANSION Canada's fight against Germany might well be made more effective if Canada took a leaf from Germany's book of financial policy and expanded its credit until maximum production was attained, Victor Quelch, New Democracy, Acadia, Alta., urged.

Instead of burdening the people with heavy taxation and huge borrowings to finance the war, the Dominion government, he said, should expand credit up to the point where full employment is reached — just as Germany, destitute and without capital in 1932 had done to build its huge war machine.

Consistently, Mr. Quelch submitted a subamendment to the budget motion asserting that "there should have been no increased tax burden placed upon the consumer until Canada attained maximum production of desired commodities or full employment by issuing through the Bank of Canada currency and credit in terms of actual public need."

Following Germany's example in finance, he hastened to add, did not mean he was advocating Nazism any more than did the use of tanks or dive bombers just because Germany used them.

Commons Debates Budget

Conservative Leader Advocates Prohibition

OTTAWA (CP)—Prohibition of sale and consumption of liquor for the war's duration is advocated by Conservative Leader R. B. Hanson.

In the House of Commons yesterday afternoon in the course of his speech in the budget debate Mr. Hanson computed Canada's drinking bill at $200,000,000 and said prohibition should be initiated "as a purely economic measure," but he realized this might not be feasible "for reasons I shall not enlarge upon."

Mr. Hanson declared his belief in "a reasonably limited amount of inflation" as a war measure, but in view of the danger of inflation going beyond limits, he did not blame the government for avoiding this method.

Mr. Hanson criticized only certain parts of the budget's application.

He regretted that was no added tax on liquor and said a tax of at least 1 cent a gallon on gasoline had been expected and should have been imposed.

Income tax impositions did not bear evenly on the people, Mr. Hanson said. About 22,000 people of the $6,000-to-$50,000 salary brackets were being called on to pay an additional $50,000,000, which he believed was far removed from "equality of sacrifice" which Finance Minister J. L. Ralston had named as his objective.

Approving the proposal to increase the excess profits tax, he said it was a proper policy for wartime, but excessive income and profit taxes and succession duties might work great injury to the state in peacetime if a capitalist system was to be maintained.

"It is no crime to accumulate a moderate degree of wealth," he said. "Most of us have striven as hard as we can to accumulate capital and I venture to say most of the accumulated capital in this country has been attained by the exercise of the good old fashioned virtue of thrift."

WORK FOR BUSINESSMEN With all the new taxes piled on existing requirements placed on business, there were a multiplicity of returns and bookkeeping entries which bore heavily on business organizations, Mr. Hanson said. He urged demands for returns be lightened if possible.

Mr. Hanson said the government's financial policy should be predicated on a confidence in the ultimate victory of the British cause, and should make every possible effort toward that end.

to Luney Bros. Ltd. The building will be connected to Spencer's store by a tunnel under the street. The property has been vacant since the fire of October, 1910.

Plan Evacuation of Orphans of Actors. OTTAWA (CP)—Alfred Hitchcock, movie director and producer of several top-ranking pictures, arrived here today to arrange for evacuation from England of 60 children who are in the Actors' Orphans Home at London.

He is a director of the orphanage and said that actors and actresses in Hollywood will arrange funds to bring out the children and look after their maintenance for the duration of the war.

Arteries have thicker walls than veins of the same size. The first weather report was given in 1921.
